Vermont Refugee Resettlement - mission

The mission of refugee resettlement in Vermont is to promote and provide a safe and welcoming home for refugees and immigrants, and to promote their full participation as self-sufficient individuals and families in the economic, social, and civic life of Vermont.

Vermont refugee resettlement

- ▶ Number of refugees assigned to a state is determined by State Department with input from resettlement agencies and consultation with state government
- ▶ Vermont has two resettlement agencies – USCRI (formerly VRRP) and ECDC.
- ▶ 4 official sites in FFY 2023, Colchester, Rutland, Brattleboro and Bennington
- ▶ 2022 Arrivals – 327 refugees/Afghan Humanitarian Parolees, estimated 50 Ukrainian Humanitarian Parolees

Refugee projections FFY2023

- ▶ ECDC and USCRI have been approved collectively to receive approximately 450 refugees in this year. Not currently on target to receive that many
- ▶ Arrivals depend in part on overseas refugee program efficiency.
- ▶ Main focus of resettlement activity is employment-related services (job placement, ELL) ultimately leading to economic self sufficiency.

Refugee Resettlement Funding

- ▶ Work is primarily funded through State Department and through Department of Health and Human Services
 - ▶ Direct federal funding to resettlement agencies (per capita and some grants)
 - ▶ Federal funding to the Vermont State Refugee Office – Base funding, Afghan specific, Ukrainian specific, set asides (schools, elderly, health, youth).
 - ▶ Base funding is based on 'look back' data. Challenge this year is that our 'refugee' (not Afghan) numbers were low for last two years which impacts the amount we get this year for new refugees who are not Afghans. Could be significant deficit. Federal gov't just announced a supplement, not sure how much we will get or when it will arrive
 - ▶ State funding this current state fiscal year ($500,000) for 'aid to refugees' – was invested in workforce (work placements, apprenticeships, ELL in the workplace) and housing related subsidies

Employment supports – the need ($350,000 in BAA)

- ❑ Longer term job coaching and development of vocational/career pathways for refugees and other new arrivals (e.g. BDCC in Brattleboro), supports for employment including driver's licenses
- ❑ If we receive the projected number of refugees, there will be a need for more staff to provide direct employment placement services. E.g. AALV worked with 168 refugees this past year but so far this calendar year my office is unable to provide them funding for the employment services work that they normally provide due to lack of funding for refugees who are not Afghan or Ukrainian (they will receive funding for Youth Mentoring, Afghan Legal Services and Services to Elderly Refugees).
- ❑ Longer term strategies including building relationships with employers, engaging and educating the business community, and creating tools to build employer confidence would assist in helping Vermont's businesses absorb this important new workforce and community.
