

A National Perspective on Wildlife Governance Reform in support of S.258

Michelle L. Lute, PhD
Co-Executive Director
Wildlife for All

63%

Vermonters see wildlife as part of their community

“Our work, however, is not complete. A significant number of wildlife species need help because of threats such as habitat loss, fragmentation and degradation; invasive exotic species; diseases; and climate change.”

James McConnell

#SchoolStrike4Climatechange

1+2+3=
#SchoolStrike4Climatechange

FUTURE
#SchoolStrike4Climatechange

R.I.P
EARTH

Wildlife is a
PUBLIC TRUST

Thank you

Michelle Lute
michelle@wildlifeforall.us

