

Addendum to my testimony on S.36

It's important to make sure ER staff have adequate debriefing, supervision, and EAP, so that they have enough emotional support about the tough and sometimes scary things they go through, working in the ER.