

Adam Greshin was appointed by Governor Phil Scott as the Commissioner of the Department of Finance in Management in June of 2017. Prior to his appointment, Greshin was a Representative, I-Warren, and served since 2009 in the House of Representatives, where he worked on education, health care and tax issues.

Greshin was a partner in Summit Ventures NE LLC, the owner of Sugarbush Resort. Over 18 years of ownership, he directed many different departments and helped oversee Sugarbush's transformation into a 4-season resort. Additionally, he sat on the executive committee. Prior to his employment at Sugarbush, he worked for 16 years as a research analyst and lead portfolio manager in the global bond group at Scudder Stevens & Clark in Boston. He was educated at Bowdoin College (BA magna cum laude in romance languages and economics, 1982) and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University (master of arts in law and diplomacy, 1984). He became a Chartered Financial Analyst in 1990. Adam is married to Anne (Cassin) Greshin and they have three children.
