Secretary

FREDERICK M. REED, Montpelier, secretary of civil and military affairs, ex-officio	Jan. 7, 1971

Date of creation of board — 1923.

Source — 32 V.S.A. § 131.

Composition — The governor, chairman of the finance committee of the senate, chairman of the appropriations committee of the senate, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house of representatives and the chairman of the appropriations committee of the house of representatives. The governor shall be chairman and the secretary of civil and military affairs shall be secretary of the board.

Salary — Committee members, $15.00 per diem, and actual and necessary expenses when away from home on business.

Principal duties — Has authority to make any expenditures necessitated by unforeseen emergencies and may borrow on the credit of the state for the same. Shall render to the general assembly an itemized statement accompanied by vouchers of the expenditures of all such money. Shall direct the examination of the books, accounts and papers in the offices of the treasurer, auditor and commissioner of taxes. For special powers under general appropriations act of 1947, see Sec. 3 of No. 32, Acts of 1947. When any building or property of the state is damaged by fire, the board may use any moneys received from insurance on such buildings or property, and may appropriate from the insurance reserve fund such an amount as it, in its discretion, may determine, for the purpose of replacing, repairing or rebuilding the same. The board may also from time to time appropriate from the insurance reserve fund such sums as it may deem advisable, to be expended in the purchase and installation, in property owned by the state, of fire protection equipment and for other like purposes which may tend to reduce the cost to the state of insurance on state property. The salaries of certain state officials are fixed by said board.
