

No. R-274. House concurrent resolution congratulating the 2011 Peoples Academy Wolves Division III championship girls' soccer team.

(H.C.R.206)

Offered by: Representatives Smith of Morristown, Peltz of Woodbury and Martin of Wolcott

Offered by: Senator Westman

Whereas, the Division III girls' soccer championship matched two of the most skilled high school squads in Vermont, the first-seeded Peoples Academy Wolves against the second-seeded Oxbow Union High School Olympians, and

Whereas, the Olympians opened the scoring with 21:50 left in the first half as the Wolves' goalie attempted to block the ball which the Olympian sent over the Peoples' defender, and

Whereas, the Wolves, although scoreless at halftime, were not discouraged as they had previously overcome a 4–0 halftime deficit in an earlier contest against Harwood, and

Whereas, at just over one minute into the second half, Peoples Academy began its rebound as a Wolves' duo brightened their fans' faces with the team's first goal, and

Whereas, with 7:14 of the second period expired, one of the Peoples players flawlessly passed the ball to her teammate who then kicked a clean shot into the scoring zone from 12 yards out, and

Whereas, with slightly under three minutes left to play, two Wolves coordinated their skills for the game's final goal, and when the whistle proclaimed the end of regulation playing time, the Peoples Academy Wolves marched off the field as 3–1 game winners and the 2011 Division III girls' soccer champions, and

Whereas, this dedicated and focused assemblage of young soccer devotees, including Sierra Nutting, Kaitlyn Jones, Allison Scarf, Nicole Leikert, Micaela Gailmor, Caitlyn Bradley, Sarah Weiss, Stacy Tomlinson, Marissa Benson, Katie Stames, Michelle Yando, Hannah Merriam, Molly Duda, Ana Swift, Carie Wan, Katie Fish, Kelli Grimes, Jammie Lafountain, Haleigh West, Haley VanCor, Megan LaMare, Brooke Wells, Kaleigh Newton, and Jessica Cantwell, was delighted, and Head Coach Jim Eisenhardt, assistant coaches Carolyn Stames and Phil Keily, and student managers Mary Fafard and Izzy Weiss each contributed to the team's grand championship season, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly congratulates the 2011 Peoples Academy Wolves Division III championship girls' soccer team, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to Peoples Academy in Morrisville.
