

Act No. 100 (H.559). Human services; education

An act relating to membership on the Building Bright Futures Council

This act alters the membership of the Building Bright Futures Council by allowing designees to attend meetings in the place of the Secretary of Education and the Commissioners of Health, of Mental Health, and for Children and Families. Designees count toward a quorum and are authorized to vote. The act also reduces from two to one the number of members from the House of Representatives and reduces from no more than two to one the number of members from the Senate. The act increases from 12 to 14 the number of at-large members of the Council.
