H.C.R. 78

House concurrent resolution congratulating the 2013 Vergennes Union High School Division II championship boys' basketball team

Offered by: Representatives Van Wyck of Ferrisburgh and Lanpher of Vergennes

Whereas, the 2012–2013 boys' basketball season was especially exciting for the fans of the Vergennes Union High School Commodores, and

Whereas, the Commodores played a consistently top-caliber game, leaving the court victorious at the conclusion of each regular season contest, and

Whereas, Vergennes lived up to the Vermont high school sports pundits' expectations as it earned a berth in the Division II championship game in Barre against the Burr & Burton Academy Bulldogs, and

Whereas, although the Commodores trailed at the end of the first quarter 13–11, they quickly recovered and were on top 33–24 at halftime, led 51–32 at the end of the third quarter, and, at the final buzzer, were thrilled with their 62–49 victory, and 24–0 season record, and

Whereas, this Division II championship was Vergennes' first boys' basketball state title since 2001, and

Whereas, this undefeated championship team included Justin Strona, Jesse Whitney, Brendon Huestis, Liam Hayes, Jarrett LaFleche, Jamie DeVries, Shep Carter, Devin Hayes, Nate Cannon, Zach Ouellette, Cody Quattrocci, Charlie Stapleford, Dan McGrath, Josh Benning, and Stanley Salley, and

Whereas, Head Coach Peter Quinn, Assistant Coaches Wayne Jones and Kyle Jones, and student managers Hunter Casey and Jason Russin each played important roles along the way to victory, now therefore be it
