To Whom It May Concern:

[REDACTED] and I met with Theresa Snow, Executive Director of Salvation Farms, as we have observed and supported their work for years. SF's systems' approach to solving problems appeals to us as a means to having the greatest impact on long-term solutions.

We discussed the overall work of the Vermont Commodity Program, and specifically the development of the processing space at the Southeast State Correctional Facility. The outcome of our meeting and subsequent conversations is a commitment of $30,000 towards this project.

We hope that our commitment will be met by the support of others.

Sincerely,
