

Additional question from House Appropriations:

Should the statement of purpose include something like this?

The District Board (not school board) shall develop and coordinate district policy, insure coordination of curriculum at all buildings, and acquire and allocate resources. The Superintendent shall advise the district board, be the district managerial leader and assist building principals with education leadership. Building principals shall be the education leader and assist teachers with education delivery.