

Trieber proposal

(1) “Bona fide health care professional-patient relationship” means a treating or consulting relationship of not less than six months’ duration, in the course of which a health care professional has completed a full assessment of the registered patient’s medical history and current medical condition, including a personal physical examination. The six-month requirement shall not apply if a patient has:

(A) a terminal illness,

(B) cancer with distant metastases, or

(C) acquired immune deficiency syndrome.
