I am writing to ask for your support in increasing the appropriations for the Vermont State Colleges. Given Vermont's already dismal support of higher education - 49th in the country in funding per full-time equivalent student (<http://www.burlingtonfreepress.com/story/news/local/2014/04/23/vermont-maintains-low-ranking-higher-ed-funding/8062207/>) - we should hardly be reducing it further. A trained and educated workforce is essential for Vermont's continued prosperity and so I ask you to support the funding required to achieve that goal.

If, by chance, you are not the correct person for me to have addressed this to, I would be grateful if you would forward it on to the appropriate person.

Thank you,

Jeremy Cornwall
