

Valley Vista

Tobacco Study Summary

- 78 Valley Vista Patients admitted in November and December 2015 were surveyed.
- 89% of patients reported that they were opiate users.
- Of the 78 patients, 68, (87.1%) reported that they regularly smoked tobacco products.
- Of the 68 patients who smoked, 2 stated that they were interested in availing themselves of smoke cessation services.
- Of the remaining 66 patients, 38 patients reported that they would opt out of inpatient services if they were not permitted to smoke.