

Hello.

Please fully fund Vermont State University with the promised $10 million for deficit reduction and bridge funding as well as the additional funds requested by the Vermont State Colleges Chancellor's office to fill the gap created by recent inflation.

Vermont State University is a special place that is revitalizing rural sections of the state and training its students for the careers of the future.

Brian Warwick, Lyndonville, VT