

Federal Medical Assistance Percentages (FMAPs)

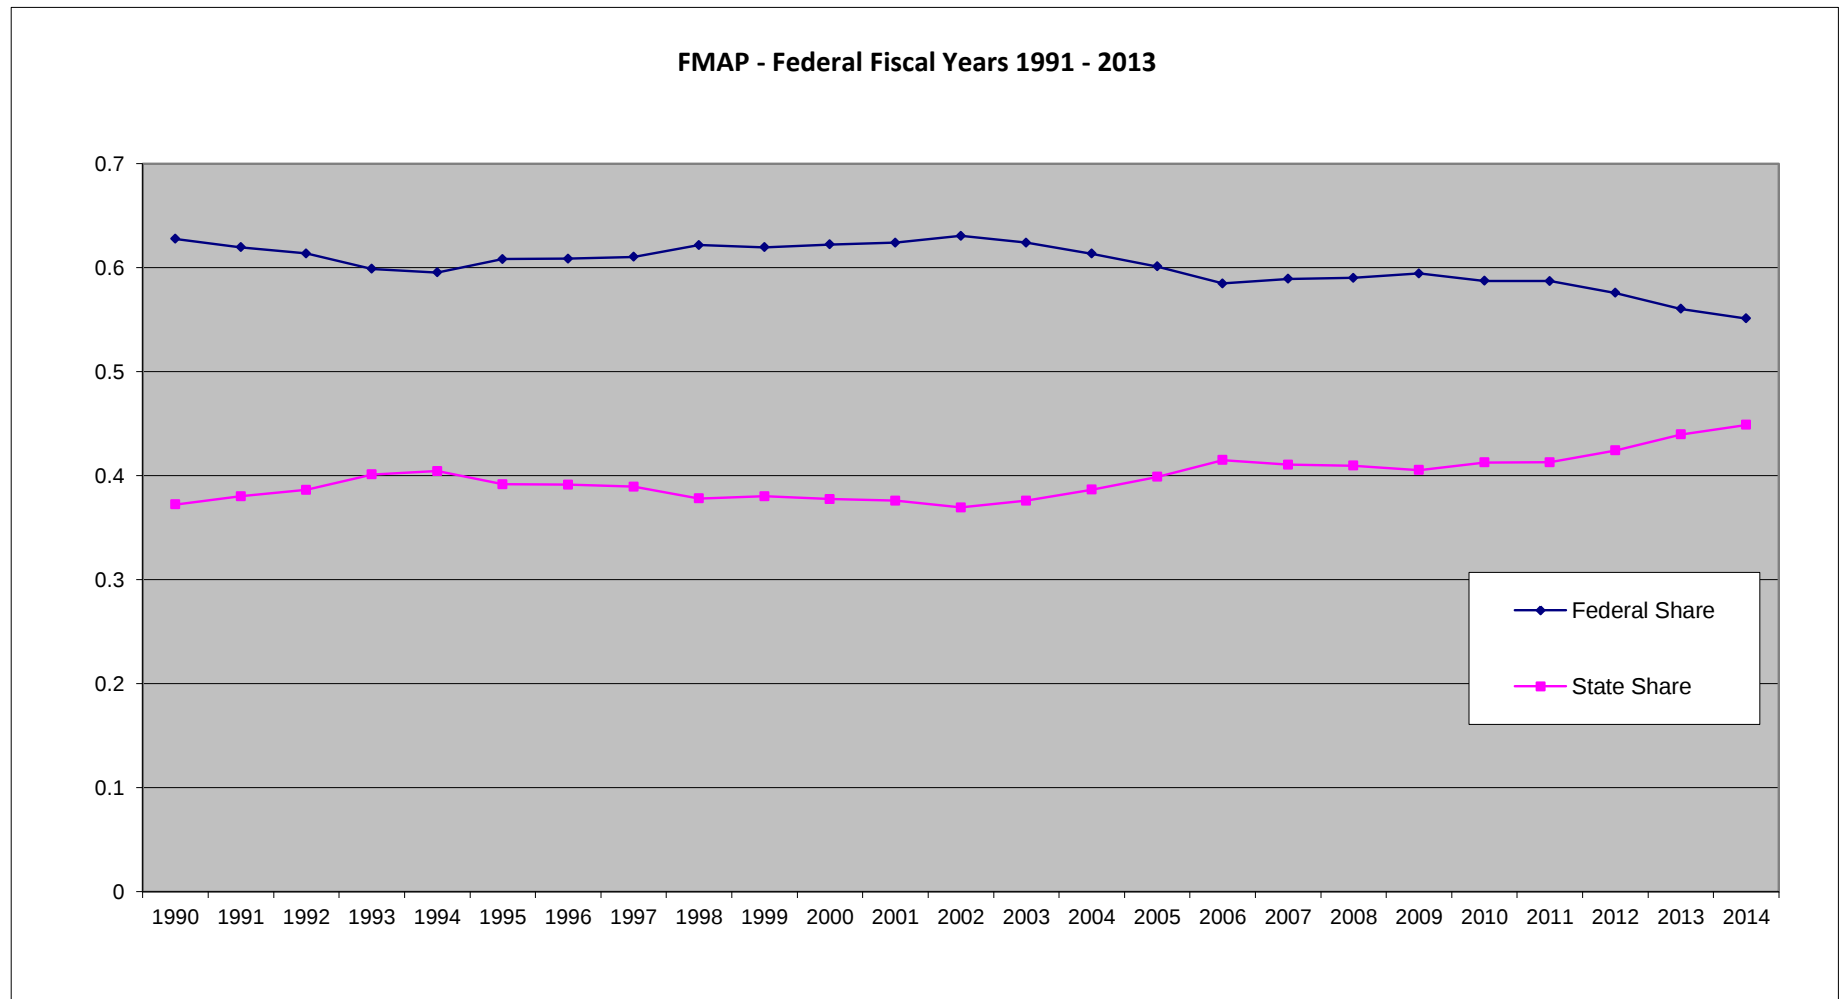

- The FMAP is the share of state Medicaid benefit costs paid by the federal government.
- Pursuant to federal law, the Secretary of the U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services calculates the FMAPs each year.
- The FMAP is calculated based on a three-year average of state per capita personal income compared to the national average.
- No state can receive less than 50% or more than 83%.
