10 and private self-image, and their primary source of comfort and affection.

11 (b) The General Assembly and the State have a strong interest in assuring 12 that children of incarcerated parents are provided with the services and support
13 necessary to thrive despite the hardship they face due to their parent’s status.

14 Sec. 2. REPORT

15 (a) The Secretary of Human Services shall study and develop
16 recommendations, within the Integrated Family Services Initiative (IFS), on 17 the following issues:

2           incarcerated parents, including parent-child visits, parenting classes, and
3           supervised visits;

4           (B) develop child- and family-centered tools or strategies that can be
5           used throughout the criminal justice system to mitigate unintended 6           consequences on children; and

8           use of Family Impact Statements in the Court process;

9           (3) appropriate physical settings for children to visit incarcerated parents
10          and services while the parent is incarcerated;

11          (4) a mechanism to ensure that coordinated services are provided to 12          children of incarcerated parents by the Department for Children and Families
13          and the Department of Corrections;

14          (5) agency data systems to track and coordinate services for children of 15          incarcerated parents; and

16          (6) the cost of services necessary to implement a comprehensive system
17          of care addressing the unique needs of children of incarcerated parents.
