

Learning Works is Vermont's Adult Education and Literacy System operated under the direction of the VT Agency of Education, Division of Secondary and Adult Education

Services provided by:

Central Vermont Adult Basic Education serving Lamoille, Washington and Orange

Northeast Kingdom Learning Services serving Caledonia, Essex, and Orleans

The Tutorial Center serving Bennington

Vermont Adult Learning serving Addison, Chittenden, Franklin, Grand Isle, Rutland, Windham and Windsor

Primary Services:

- Basic Skills Instruction in Reading, Writing, Math and Technology
- High School Completion Program
- GED testing
- College Transition
- English Language Instruction for non-native speakers
- Work Keys Certification

Common Practices:

- Assessment driven instruction
- Personalized Learning Plans for all students
- Real-world, contextualized learning

Students Served in FY'13:

- 3,700 students ages 16 and older
 - 2,800 Adult Basic Education Students (includes 400 non-native speakers)
 - 900 Adult Secondary Education Students
 - 400 GED only students
- 50% under the age of 22
- 856 individuals earned a high school diploma or GED