

H.123 Witness List

The House Health Care Committee heard testimony from 34 witnesses, including 11 witnesses at a Joint Hearing with Senate Health and Welfare in April of 2013; and reviewed 51 documents submitted by witnesses, and many other submitted by advocates.

Witnesses who testified on H.123 and Lyme Disease, in 2013 and 2014:

Director of Immunobiology Medicine, University of Vermont

Commissioner, Department of Health

Vermont Association for Justice (Trial lawyers)

Director, Lyme Project, Mt. Kisco, New York

Lyme Disease Initiative

Stram Center for Integrative Medicine

Hudson Valley Healing Arts Center

MVP Healthcare

Chief Medical Officer, Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Vermont

Executive Director, Vermont Board of Medical Practice

Director of the Office of Professional Regulation, Secretary of State's Office

Vermont Medical Society

Vermont Nurse Practitioners Association

MPH Health Surveillance Epidemiologist, Department of Health

Infectious Diseases Society of America (IDSA)

Director of Infectious Diseases, Fletcher Allen Health Care

Legislative Counsel

A broad spectrum of medical doctors treating Lyme disease patients

Vermont Senators and Representatives

People from around Vermont who are dealing with Lyme disease and their family members, including representatives from:

Vermont Lyme Action Committee

Northern Vermont Lyme Disease Support Group

And people from Barre, Burlington, Charlotte, Colchester, Holland, Middlebury, Stowe, Underhill, Waitsfield, Westford and Williston.