

Steve Dale
H.876 4/30/14

On or before January 1, 2015, the Secretary of Education shall develop a proposal for reducing the costs of managing the business services associated with education which may include centralization or regionalization of some functions. The proposal shall include a listing of the services which would be centralized or regionalized, how those services would be managed, and projection of implementation costs and short and long-term savings associated with such a change.