The fact-finding committee shall make a written report and shall deliver it to both parties recommending a reasonable basis for the settlement of the disagreement within 30 days after the appointment of all members of the committee. Upon receipt of the report, the parties shall continue to negotiate on all issues remaining in dispute, and may jointly agree upon the services and person of a mediator to assist them in reaching a settlement of the disagreement.
(d) The report of the fact-finding committee shall be advisory only and shall not be binding on either party. The report shall be made public by the fact-finding committee if the issues in dispute have not been resolved within ten days of the delivery of the report.

Rep. Dame of Essex explained his vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

It was said today that in 40 years we've only had 20 strikes - that's an average of one every two years. With a strike in South Burlington last year, statistically we can expect another one next year. Wherever it happens those who joined me in voting yes can face our communities knowing that we did our best to make sure it didn't happen in ours, or any community in our state.”

Rep. Rachelson of Burlington explained her vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

Ronald Reagan said ‘Where free unions and collective bargaining are forbidden, freedom is lost.’ The right to strike is an essential part of the collective bargaining process; otherwise, it is considered collective begging.”

Rep. Wright of Burlington explained his vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

I support this amendment because it eliminates divisive and disruptive strikes that tear at the fabric of every community. It means neither side can take drastic unilateral action, it removes the ‘nuclear option’ for both sides and that’s fair.”

Pending the question, Shall the bill be amended as recommended by the committee on Education? Rep. Jewett of Ripton moved to amend the recommendation of amendment offered by the committee on Education as follows:

By striking all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 1. TASK FORCE ON DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN LABOR RELATIONS FOR TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATORS;

REPORT

(a) Creation. There is created a Task Force on Dispute Resolution in Labor Relations for Teachers and Administrators to study the issue of impasse resolution in labor negotiations for school teachers and administrators.

(b) Membership. The Task Force shall be composed of the following seven members:

(1) the President of the Vermont – National Education Association or designee:
(2) two individuals with experience in labor relations designated by the Vermont – National Education Association;

(3) the Executive Director of the Vermont School Boards Association or designee;

(4) two individuals with experience in labor relations designated by the Vermont School Boards Association; and

(5) an individual with experience in labor relations mutually agreed upon by the other members of the Task Force who shall serve as the Chair of the Task Force. If the other members of the Task Force are unable to mutually agree upon the individual who shall serve as the Chair of the Task Force by July 15, 2015, the Vermont Labor Relations Board shall appoint the individual.

(c) Powers and duties. The Task Force shall evaluate the existing statutes governing labor relations for school teachers and administrators, and shall consider whether legislative changes are necessary to improve the existing process for resolving a dispute or impasse during labor negotiations. In particular, the Task Force shall:

(1) evaluate the existing practices and statutory provisions related to labor negotiations for school teachers and administrators and identify specific barriers to the effective resolution of a dispute or impasse during negotiations;

(2) examine the historic frequency of strikes and contract impositions in Vermont and the resulting impacts on local communities and schools;

(3) examine the historic frequency of labor negotiations continuing past the expiration date of the previous contract and identify any resulting impacts on the parties created by the failure to conclude negotiations prior to the expiration date;

(4) assess the relative merits of various alternative methods for the resolution of a dispute or impasse during labor negotiations and whether such alternatives could improve the collective bargaining process for school teachers and administrators in Vermont; and

(5) assess the relative merits of various methods for encouraging parties in labor negotiations to promptly resolve a dispute or impasse if it continues past the expiration date of the existing collective bargaining agreement.

(d) Report. On or before January 15, 2016, the Task Force shall submit a written report to the House Committees on Education and on General, Housing and Military Affairs and the Senate Committees on Education and on Economic Development, Housing and General Affairs with its findings and any recommendation for legislative action to amend 16 V.S.A. chapter 57.
(labor relations for teachers and administrators) to improve the existing process for resolving a dispute or impasse during labor negotiations. If the Task Force recommends legislative action, it shall recommend legislation that would have an effective date of July 1, 2018 and be applicable to negotiations for collective bargaining agreements taking effect on or after July 1, 2019.

(e) Meetings.

(1) The Chair of the Task Force shall call the first meeting of the Task Force to occur on or before August 15, 2015.

Rep. Komline of Dorset explained her vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

We hear a lot about the importance of process here. That said, it was disappointing that the Ed Committee never considered this amendment. Disappointing, but mostly concerning.”

Rep. McFaun of Barre Town explained his vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

I vote ‘no’ because I believe we should leave the collective bargaining process as is completely because it works.”

Rep. Poirier of Barre City explained his vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

I voted ‘no’ because this was a bad legislation from the start and no amendment can make this palatable. I hope, Mr. Speaker, that we use the next vote on this bill to defeat it. Period.”

Thereupon, the recommendation of amendment offered by the committee on Education, as amended, was agreed to.

Pending the question, Shall the bill be read a third time? Rep. Turner of Milton demanded the Yeas and Nays, which demand was sustained by the Constitutional number. The Clerk proceeded to call the roll and the question, Shall the bill be read a third time? was decided in the affirmative. Yeas, 75. Nays, 61.

Rep. Copeland-Hanzas of Bradford explained her vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:
The narrative of our votes here today shows that there is not a clear consensus on whether or how to change the way labor disputes are settled here in VT. It is clear that there is deep respect for our teachers and their right to collectively bargain – as well as for the diligent work done on our behalf by the men and women who serve on our local school boards. I trust they can answer future questions of whether and how to change how they settle disputes.”

Rep. McFaun of Barre Town explained his vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

In a speech on Labor Day in 1980, Ronald Reagan said, when referring to the brave workers in Poland ‘where free unions and collective bargaining are forbidden freedom is lost.’ I vote ‘no’ on this bill to ensure that we leave the collective bargaining process alone to let local people work out their differences. It works now and will work in the future.”

Rep. Pearson of Burlington explained his vote as follows:

“Mr. Speaker:

This vote demonstrates that people working together can quickly digest information and make reasonable decisions. It is an example of reactions to new information and is why this bill is necessary.”
