

ALTERNATE PROPOSAL 2/24

A person may obtain an order to keep another person from contacting him or her if the plaintiff establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that:

1. The defendant has on two or more occasions, over a period of time no matter how short, showing a continuity of purpose, intentionally done the following:
 - a. Threatened the plaintiff with physical harm by written or spoken words, or by actions, that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety; or
 - b. Followed or surveilled the plaintiff, in person or by electronic means, without a legitimate reason and in a manner that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety; or
 - c. Hidden out of sight for the purpose of attacking or harming the plaintiff;and
2. The conduct would cause a reasonable person to fear that the defendant is going to physically harm or kidnap the plaintiff;
3. The actions of the defendant are not constitutionally protected activity.