

Here is the second email. In the text below, Dr. Griner Hill also provided information regarding additional funding that is allocated from liquor revenues.

Regards,

Mary Segawa

Mary Segawa
Public Health Education Liaison
WA State Liquor and Cannabis Board
(360) 664-1771
<https://lcb.wa.gov>

Extra patrols are out helping keep our roads safe. Distraction occurs any time you take your eyes off the road, hands off the wheel and mind off driving safely. If you're texting, you're not driving. Let's reach our Target Zero goal together – zero traffic deaths in your family, zero traffic deaths in our state.

April is Distracted Driving Awareness Month

From: Hill, Laura Griner [mailto:laurahill@wsu.edu]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2016 11:47 AM
To: Dennis M. Donovan <ddonovan@u.washington.edu>; Kevin Haggerty <haggerty@uw.edu>; Segawa, Mary B (LCB) <mary.segawa@lcb.wa.gov>
Subject: RE: Research funding

Hi Mary,

Here's some more information. In addition to the I-502 grants (attached), ADARP has funded the marijuana research listed below, from the I-171 funds.

Laura

Cuttler, Carrie Psychology
“Individual Differences in the Influence of Cannabis on Cognition”
$30,000 Pilot
(Begun 2/20/15)

Fanale, Candace Psychology
Mentor(s): Patricia Maarhuis, Bruce Wright
“The Impact of Mental Health on Cannabis Use among Sanctioned College Students.”
$10,765 Graduate
(Begun 7/1/15)

Roberts, Sydney IPN
Mentor(s): Ryan McLaughlin

“Effects of gestational exposure to vaporized cannabis on attention and prefrontocortical endocannabinoid gene expression in adolescent rats”
$2,426 Undergrad-Sem
(Pending DEA License)

Laura G. Hill
Washington State University
Professor and Chair, Human Development
Prevention Science Graduate Faculty
Johnson Tower 501
Pullman, WA 99164-4852
P: (509) 335-8478
laurahill@wsu.edu