

1 TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

2 The Committee on Commerce and Economic Development to which was
3 referred Senate Bill No. 73 entitled “An act relating to rent-to-own agreements 4 for merchandise” respectfully reports that it has considered the same and 5 recommends that the House propose to the Senate that the bill be amended by 6 striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the 7 following:

8 * * * Consumer Rent-to-Own Agreements * * *

9 Sec. 1. 9 V.S.A. § 41b is amended to read:

10 § 41b. RENT-TO-OWN AGREEMENTS; DISCLOSURE OF TERMS

11 ~~(a) The attorney general shall adopt by rule standards for the full and~~ 12 ~~conspicuous disclosure to consumers of the terms of rent to own agreements.~~
13 ~~For purposes of this section a rent to own agreement means an agreement for~~ 14 ~~the use of merchandise by a consumer for personal, family, or household~~
15 ~~purposes, for an initial period of four months or less, that is renewable with~~ 16 ~~each payment after the initial period and that permits the lessee to become the~~ 17 ~~owner of the property. An agreement that complies with this article is not a~~
18 ~~retail installment sales contract, agreement or obligation as defined in this~~
19 ~~chapter or a security interest as defined in section 1-201(37) of Title 9A.~~

1 ~~(b) The attorney general, or an aggrieved person, may enforce a violation~~
2 ~~of the rules adopted pursuant to this section as an unfair or deceptive act or~~
3 ~~practice in commerce under section 2453 of this title.~~

4 (a) Definitions. In this section:

5 (1) “Advertisement” means a commercial message that solicits a
6 consumer to enter into a rent-to-own agreement for a specific item of 7 merchandise that is conveyed:

8 (A) at a merchant’s place of business;

9 (B) on a merchant’s website; or

10 (C) on television or radio.

11 (2) “Cash price” means the price of merchandise available under a 12 rent-to-own agreement that the consumer may pay in cash to the merchant at 13 the inception of the agreement to acquire ownership of the merchandise.

14 (3) “Clear and conspicuous” means that the statement or term being 15 disclosed is of such size, color, contrast, or audibility, as applicable, so that the 16 nature, content, and significance of the statement or term is reasonably 17 apparent to the person to whom it is disclosed.

18 (4) “Consumer” has the same meaning as in subsection 2451a(a) of this 19 title.

20 (5) “Merchandise” means an item of a merchant’s property that is 21 available for use under a rent-to-own agreement. The term does not include:

1 (A) real property;

2 (B) a mobile home, as defined in section 2601 of this title;

3 (C) a motor vehicle, as defined in 23 V.S.A. § 4;

4 (D) an assistive device, as defined in section 41c of this title; or

5 (E) a musical instrument intended to be used primarily in an
6 elementary or secondary school.

7 (6) “Merchant” means a person who offers, or contracts for, the use of 8 merchandise under a rent-to-own agreement.

9 (7) “Merchant’s cost” means the documented actual cost, including 10 actual freight charges, of merchandise to the merchant from a wholesaler, 11 distributor, supplier, or manufacturer and net of any discounts, rebates, and 12 incentives that are vested and calculable as to a specific item of merchandise at 13 the time the merchant accepts delivery of the merchandise.

14 (8)(A) “Rent-to-own agreement” means a contract under which a 15 consumer agrees to pay a merchant for the right to use merchandise and 16 acquire ownership, which is renewable with each payment after the initial 17 period, and which remains in effect until:

18 (i) the consumer returns the merchandise to the merchant;

19 (ii) the merchant retakes possession of the merchandise; or

20 (iii) the consumer pays the total cost and acquires ownership of 21 the merchandise.

1 (B) A “rent-to-own agreement” as defined in subdivision (7)(A) of 2 this subsection is not:

3 (i) a sale subject to 9A V.S.A. Article 2;

4 (ii) a lease subject to 9A V.S.A. Article 2A;

5 (iii) a security interest as defined in subdivision 9A V.S.A.
6 § 1-201(a)(35); or

7 (iv) a retail installment contract or retail charge agreement as 8 defined in chapter 61 of this title.

9 (9) “Rent-to-own charge” means the difference between the total cost
10 and the cash price of an item of merchandise.

11 (10) “Total cost” means the sum of all payments, charges, and fees that 12 a consumer must pay to acquire ownership of merchandise under a rent-to-own
13 agreement. The term does not include charges or fees for optional services or 14 charges or fees due only upon the occurrence of a contingency specified in the 15 agreement.

16 (b) General requirements.

17 (1) Prior to execution, a merchant shall give a consumer the opportunity 18 to review a written copy of a rent-to-own agreement that includes all of the 19 information required by this section for each item of merchandise covered by 20 the agreement and shall not refuse a consumer’s request to review the

1 agreement with a third party, either inside the merchant's place of business or 2 at another location.

3 (2) A disclosure required by this section shall be clear and conspicuous.

4 (3) In a rent-to-own agreement, a merchant shall state a numerical
5 amount or percentage as a figure and shall print or legibly handwrite the figure 6 in the equivalent of 12-point type or greater.

7 (4) A merchant may supply information not required by this section with 8 the disclosures required by this section, but shall not state or place additional 9 information in such a way as to cause the required disclosures to be misleading
10 or confusing, or to contradict, obscure, or detract attention from the required
11 disclosures.

12 (5) Except for price cards on site, a merchant shall preserve an 13 advertisement, or a digital copy of the advertisement, for not less than two 14 years after the date the advertisement appeared. In the case of a radio, 15 television, or Internet advertisement, a merchant may preserve a copy of the 16 script or storyboard.

17 (6) Subject to availability, a merchant shall make merchandise that is 18 advertised available to all consumers on the terms and conditions that appear in 19 the advertisement.

20 (7) A rent-to-own agreement that is substantially modified, including a 21 change that increases the consumer's payments or other obligations or

1 diminishes the consumer's rights, shall be considered a new agreement subject
2 to the requirements of this chapter.

3 (8) For each rent-to-own agreement, a merchant shall keep the following
4 information in an electronic or hard copy for a period of four years following
5 the date the agreement ends:

6 (A) the rent-to-own agreement covering the item; and

7 (B) a record that establishes the merchant's cost for the item.

8 (9) A rent-to-own agreement executed by a merchant doing business in 9 Vermont and a resident of Vermont shall be governed by Vermont law.

10 (c) Cash price; reduction for used merchandise; maximum limits.

11 (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection, 12 the maximum cash price for an item of merchandise shall not exceed:

13 (A) for an appliance, 1.75 times the merchant's cost;

14 (B) for an item of electronics that has a merchant's cost of less than 15 $150.00, 1.75 times the merchant's cost;

16 (C) for an item of electronics that has a merchant's cost of $150.00 or 17 more, 2.00 times the merchant's cost;

18 (D) for an item of furniture or jewelry, 2.50 times the merchant's 19 cost; and

20 (E) for any other item, 2.00 times the merchant's cost.

1 (2)(A) The cash price for an item of merchandise that has been
2 previously used by a consumer shall be at least 10 percent less than the cash
3 price calculated under subdivision (1) of this subsection.

4 (B) The merchant shall reduce the amount of the periodic payment in 5 a rent-to-own agreement by the percentage of the cash price reduction for 6 previously used merchandise established by the merchant.

7 (3) The total cost for an item of merchandise shall not exceed two times
8 the maximum cash price for the item.

9 (d) Disclosures in advertising; prohibited disclosures.

10 (1) An advertisement that refers to or states the dollar amount of any 11 payment for merchandise shall state:

12 (A) the cash price of the item;

13 (B) that the merchandise is available under a rent-to-own agreement;

14 (C) the amount, frequency, and total number of payments required
15 for ownership;

16 (D) the total cost for the item;

17 (E) the rent-to-own charge for the item; and

18 (F) that the consumer will not own the merchandise until the 19 consumer pays the total cost for ownership.

1 (2) A merchant shall not advertise that no credit check is required or 2 performed, or that all consumers are approved for transactions, if the merchant
3 subjects the consumer to a credit check.

4 (e) Disclosures on site. In addition to the information required in 5 subsection (d) of this section, an advertisement at a merchant’s place of 6 business shall include:

7 (1) whether the item is new or used; and

8 (2) when the merchant acquired the item.

9 (f) Disclosures in rent-to-own agreement.

10 (1) The first page of a rent-to-own agreement shall include:

11 (A) a heading and clause in bold-face type that reads: “IMPORTANT
12 INFORMATION ABOUT THIS RENT-TO-OWN AGREEMENT.

13 Do Not Sign this Agreement Before You Read It or If It Contains any Blank
14 Spaces. You have a Right to Review this Agreement or Compare Costs Away 15 from the Store Before You Sign.”; and

16 (B) the following information in the following order:

17 (i) the name, address, and contact information of the merchant;

18 (ii) the name, address, and contact information of the consumer;

19 (iii) the date of the transaction;

1 (g) Required provisions of rent-to-own agreement. A rent-to-own
2 agreement shall provide:

3 (1) a statement of payment due dates;

4 (2) a line-item list of any other charges or fees the consumer could be 5 charged or have the option of paying in the course of acquiring ownership or 6 during or after the term of the agreement;

7 (3) that the consumer will not own the merchandise until he or she 8 makes all of the required payments for ownership;

9 (4) that the consumer has the right to receive a receipt for a payment
10 and, upon reasonable notice, a written statement of account;

11 (5) who is responsible for service, maintenance, and repair of an item of 12 merchandise;

13 (6) that, except in the case of the consumer's negligence or abuse, if the 14 merchant, during the term of the agreement, must retake possession of the 15 merchandise for maintenance, repair, or service, or the item cannot be repaired,
16 the merchant is responsible for providing the consumer with a replacement
17 item of equal quality and comparable design;

18 (7) that the maximum amount of the consumer's liability for damage or 19 loss to the merchandise is limited to an amount equal to the cash price 20 multiplied by the ratio of:

1 (A) the number of payments remaining to acquire ownership under 2 the agreement; to

3 (B) the total number of payments necessary to acquire ownership
4 under the agreement.

5 (8) a statement that if any part of a manufacturer’s express warranty 6 covers the merchandise at the time the consumer acquires ownership the 7 merchant shall transfer the warranty to the consumer if allowed by the terms of 8 the warranty;

9 (9) a description of any damage waiver or insurance purchased by the 10 consumer, or a statement that the consumer is not required to purchase any 11 damage waiver or insurance;

12 (10) an explanation of the consumer’s options to purchase the 13 merchandise;

14 (11) an explanation of the merchant’s right to repossess the 15 merchandise; and

16 (12) an explanation of the parties’ respective rights to terminate the 17 agreement, and to reinstate the agreement.

18 (h) Warranties.

19 (1) Upon transfer of ownership of merchandise to a consumer, a
20 merchant shall transfer to the consumer any manufacturer’s or other warranty
21 on the merchandise.

1 (2) A merchant creates an implied warranty to a consumer, which may
2 not be waived, in the following circumstances:

3 (A) an affirmation of fact or promise made by the merchant to the 4 consumer which relates to merchandise creates an implied warranty that the 5 merchandise will substantially conform to the affirmation or promise;

6 (B) a description of the merchandise by the merchant creates an 7 implied warranty that the merchandise will substantially conform to the 8 description; and

9 (C) a sample or model exhibited to the consumer by the merchant
10 creates an implied warranty that the merchandise actually delivered to the 11 consumer will substantially conform to the sample or model.

12 (i) Maintenance and repairs.

13 (1) During the term of a rent-to-own agreement, the merchant shall 14 maintain the merchandise in good working condition.

15 (2) If a repair cannot be completed within three days, the merchant shall 16 provide a replacement to the consumer to use until the original merchandise is 17 repaired. Replacement merchandise shall be at least comparable in quality, 18 age, condition, and warranty coverage to the replaced original merchandise.

19 (3) A merchant is not required to repair or replace merchandise that has 20 been damaged as a result of negligence or an intentional act by the consumer.

1 (j) Prohibited provisions of rent-to-own agreement. A rent-to-own
2 agreement shall not include any of the following provisions, which shall be
3 void and unenforceable:

4 (1) a provision requiring a confession of judgment;

5 (2) a provision requiring a garnishment of wages;

6 (3) a provision requiring arbitration or mediation of a claim that
7 otherwise meets the jurisdictional requirements of a small claims proceeding
8 under 12 V.S.A. chapter 187;

9 (4) a provision authorizing a merchant or its agent to enter unlawfully 10 upon the consumer’s premises or to commit any breach of the peace in the 11 repossession of property;

12 (5) a provision requiring the consumer to waive any defense,
13 counterclaim, or right of action against the merchant or its agent in collection 14 of payment under the agreement or in the repossession of property; or 15 (6) a provision requiring the consumer to purchase a damage waiver or 16 insurance from the merchant to cover the property.

17 (k) Option to purchase. Notwithstanding any other provision of this 18 section, at any time after the first payment a consumer who is not in violation
19 of a rent-to-own agreement may acquire ownership of the merchandise covered 20 by the agreement by paying an amount equal to the cash price of the

1 merchandise minus 50 percent of the value of the consumer's previous 2 payments.

3 (l) Payment; notice of default. If a consumer fails to make a timely 4 payment required in a rent-to-own agreement, the merchant shall deliver to the 5 consumer a notice of default and right to reinstate the agreement at least 6 14 days before the merchant commences a civil action to collect amounts the 7 consumer owes under the agreement.

8 (m) Collections; repossession of merchandise; prohibited acts. When 9 attempting to collect a debt or enforce an obligation under a rent-to-own 10 agreement, a merchant shall not:

11 (1) call or visit a consumer's workplace after a request by the consumer
12 or his or her employer not to do so;

13 (2) use profanity or any language to abuse, ridicule, or degrade a
14 consumer;

15 (3) repeatedly call, leave messages, knock on doors, or ring doorbells;

16 (4) ask someone, other than a spouse, to make a payment on behalf of a
17 consumer;

18 (5) obtain payment through a consumer's bank, credit card, or other
19 account without authorization;

20 (6) speak with a consumer more than six times per week to discuss an 21 overdue account;

1 (7) engage in violence;

2 (8) trespass;

3 (9) call or visit a consumer at home or work after receiving legal notice
4 that the consumer has filed for bankruptcy;

5 (10) impersonate others;

6 (11) discuss a consumer’s account with anyone other than a spouse of 7 the consumer;

8 (12) threaten unwarranted legal action; or

9 (13) leave a recorded message for a consumer that includes anything
10 other than the caller’s name, contact information, and a courteous request that 11 the consumer return the call.

12 (n) Reinstatement of agreement.

13 (1) A consumer who fails to make a timely payment may reinstate a 14 rent-to-own agreement without losing any rights or options that exist under the 15 agreement by paying all past-due charges, the reasonable costs of pickup,
16 redelivery, and any refurbishing, and any applicable late fee:

17 (A) within five business days of the renewal date of the agreement if 18 the consumer pays monthly; or

19 (B) within three business days of the renewal date of the agreement if 20 the consumer pays more frequently than monthly.

1 (2) If a consumer promptly returns or voluntarily surrenders
2 merchandise upon a merchant’s request, the consumer may reinstate a
3 rent-to-own agreement during a period of not less than 180 days after the date
4 the merchant retakes possession of the merchandise.

5 (3) In the case of a rent-to-own agreement that is reinstated pursuant to 6 this subsection, the merchant is not required to provide the consumer with the 7 identical item of merchandise and may provide the consumer with a
8 replacement item of equal quality and comparable design.

9 (o) Reasonable charges and fees; late fees.

10 (1) A charge or fee assessed under a rent-to-own agreement shall be 11 reasonably related to the actual cost to the merchant of the service or hardship
12 for which it is charged.

13 (2) A merchant may assess only one late fee for each payment
14 regardless of how long the payment remains due.

15 (p) Prohibition on rent-to-own businesses and licensed lenders. A person
16 engaged in the business of selling merchandise under a rent-to-own agreement
17 subject to this section shall not engage in any conduct or business at the same
18 physical location that would require a license under 8 V.S.A. chapter 73
19 (licensed lenders).

1 (q) Enforcement; remedies; damages. A person who violates this section
2 commits an unfair and deceptive act in commerce in violation of section 2453
3 of this title.

4 * * * Financial Literacy * * *

5 Sec. 2. FINDINGS

6 The General Assembly finds:

7 (1) Many Vermonters are not learning the basics of personal finance in 8 school or in life and their lack of knowledge and skill can have severe and 9 negative consequences to themselves and Vermont's economy. Financial 10 illiteracy affects everyone—men and women, young and old, and crosses all 11 racial and socio-economic boundaries.

12 (2) Financial literacy is an essential 21st century life skill that young 13 people need to succeed, yet recent studies and surveys show that our youth
14 have not mastered these topics. For example, a 2013 report by Vermont Works
15 for Women indicated that young women believe that a lack of personal finance
16 training was a major deficiency in their education. Without improved financial 17 literacy, the next generation of Vermont leaders, job creators, entrepreneurs,
18 and taxpayers will lack skills they need to survive and to thrive in this 19 increasingly complex financial world.

20 (3) The following are some facts about the lack of financial literacy in 21 Vermont's k–12 schools:

1 (A) Vermont received a “D” grade in a national report card on State
2 efforts to improve financial literacy in high schools, but more than one-half of 3 the states received a grade of A, B, or C;

4 (B) in an Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development
5 (OECD) Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) international 6 financial literacy test of 15-year-olds, the United States ranked 9th out of 7 13 countries participating in the exam—statistically tied with the Russian
8 Federation and behind China, Estonia, Czech Republic, Poland, and Latvia;

9 (C) only 10 percent of high schools in Vermont (7 out of 65) have a
10 financial literacy graduation requirement;

11 (D) a 2011 survey shows that as many as 30 percent of Vermont high
12 schools may not even offer a personal finance elective course for their students 13 to take; and

14 (E) the same survey indicates that Vermont high school
15 administrators estimate that more than two-thirds of the students graduate 16 without achieving competence in financial literacy topics.

17 (4) Most students are not financially literate when they enter college and 18 we know that many students leave college for “financial reasons.” Too few 19 Vermont college students have received personal finance education in k–12
20 school or at home. In fact, a Schwab survey indicated that parents are nearly 21 as uncomfortable talking to their children about money as they are discussing

1 sex. Except in some targeted programs and occasional courses, most college
2 students in Vermont are not offered much in the way of financial literacy
3 education. Personal finance education often consists of brief mandatory 4 entrance and exit counseling for students with federal loans, along with 5 reminders to Vermont students to repay their loans. Today's college graduates 6 need to be financially sophisticated because they face greater challenges than 7 previous generations experienced. As a result of the recent recession, many 8 are worse off than their parents were at the same age, with more debt and 9 stagnant or lower incomes. They have higher unemployment rates than older 10 citizens, more live at home with their parents, while fewer own a home, have 11 children or are married. A lack of financial skills is clearly a factor in the 12 failure of many in this generation to launch, and is having a substantial impact 13 on our overall economy.

14 (5) A more financially sophisticated collegiate student body can be 15 expected to yield a corresponding increase in retention and persistence rates,
16 fewer student loans, and lower student loan default rates and greater alumni 17 giving.

18 (6) Several studies show that financially sophisticated college students
19 have better outcomes. For example, three University of Arizona longitudinal 20 studies that followed students through college and into the workforce clearly 21 demonstrated that achieving financial self-sufficiency, a key developmental

1 challenge of young adulthood, appears to be driven by financial behaviors
2 practiced during emerging adulthood. The study indicated that college
3 students who exhibited responsible early financial practices experienced
4 smoother transitions to adulthood than students who had poor behaviors. The 5 studies also found that those students who were most successful with this 6 transition to adulthood had more financial education through personal finance
7 or economics classes.

8 (7) Some troubling facts about college students lack of financial literacy
9 include:

10 (A) 63 percent of Vermont four-year college students that graduated
11 in 2012 had student loan debt that averaged $28,299.00;

12 (B) nationally, nearly 11 percent of all student loan borrowers were 13 delinquent in their payments by more than 90 days as of June 2014; and

14 (C) only 27 percent of parents in Vermont have set aside funds for 15 their child's college education.

16 (8) Many of Vermont's adults struggle financially. The recent recession 17 demonstrated that our citizens have trouble making complex financial 18 decisions that are critical to their well-being. Nearly one-half of Vermont 19 adults have subprime credit ratings, and thus pay more interest on auto and 20 home loans and credit card debt; nearly two-thirds have not planned for

1 retirement; and less than one-half of Vermont adults participate in an
2 employment-based retirement plan.

3 (9) Personal economic stress results in lost productivity, increased
4 absenteeism, employee turnover, and increased medical, legal, and insurance
5 costs. Employers in Vermont and our overall economy will benefit from a 6 decrease in personal economic stress that can result from more adult financial 7 education.

8 (10) Some troubling facts about Vermont adults' lack of financial 9 literacy:

10 (A) in a 2014 survey, 41 percent of U.S. adults gave themselves a
11 grade of C, D, or F on their personal finance knowledge;

12 (B) nationally, 34 percent of adults indicated that they have no
13 retirement savings;

14 (C) as of the third quarter of 2014, among those Vermonters owing 15 money in revolving debt, including credit cards, private label cards, and lines
16 of credit, the average balance was $9,822.00 per borrower;

17 (D) 62 percent of Vermont adults do not have a rainy-day fund, a
18 liquid emergency fund that would cover three months of life's necessities;

19 (E) nearly 20 percent of adult Vermonters are unbanked or 20 underbanked; and

1 (F) 22 percent of Vermont adults used one or more nonbank
2 borrowing methods in the past five years, including an auto title loan, payday
3 loan, advance on tax refund, pawn shop, and rent-to-own.

4 (11) Vermonters need the skills and tools to take control of their
5 financial lives. Studies have shown that financial literacy is linked to positive
6 outcomes like wealth accumulation, stock market participation, retirement
7 planning, and avoidance of high cost alternative financial products.

8 (12) When they graduate, Vermont high school students should, at a 9 minimum, understand how credit works, how to budget, and how to save and 10 invest. College graduates should understand those concepts in addition to the 11 connection between income and careers, and how student loans work.
12 Vermont adults need to understand the critical importance of rainy-day and 13 retirement funds, and the amounts they will need in those funds.

14 (13) All Vermonters should have access to content and training that will 15 help them increase their personal finance knowledge. Vermont students and 16 adults need a clear path to building their personal finance knowledge and 17 skills. Vermont needs to increase its focus on helping Vermonters become 18 wiser consumers, savers, and investors. Financial literacy education is a 19 helping hand that gives individuals knowledge and skills that can lift them out 20 of a financial problem, or prevent difficulties from occurring.

1 (14) A more financially sophisticated and capable citizenry will help
2 improve Vermont’s economy and overall prosperity.

3 (15) In 2014, a Vermont Financial Literacy Task Force convened by the 4 Center for Financial Literacy at Champlain College, recommended as one of 5 its 13 action items that a Vermont Financial Literacy Commission be created to 6 help improve the financial literacy and capability of all Vermonters.

7 Sec. 3. 9 V.S.A. chapter 151 is added to read:
