

Vermont Agency of Transportation MEASURING PROGRESS: 2014

Results-Based Accountability

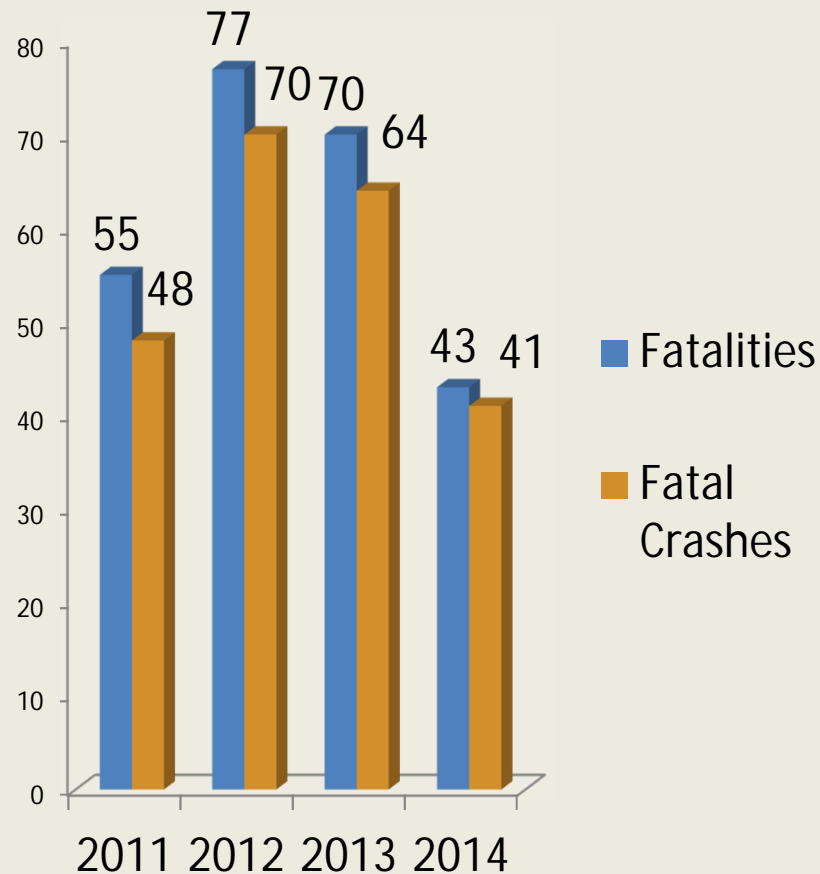

Sue Minter, Secretary

Vermont Agency of Transportation

January 13, 2015

Highway Safety: Reducing Highway Crashes & Fatalities

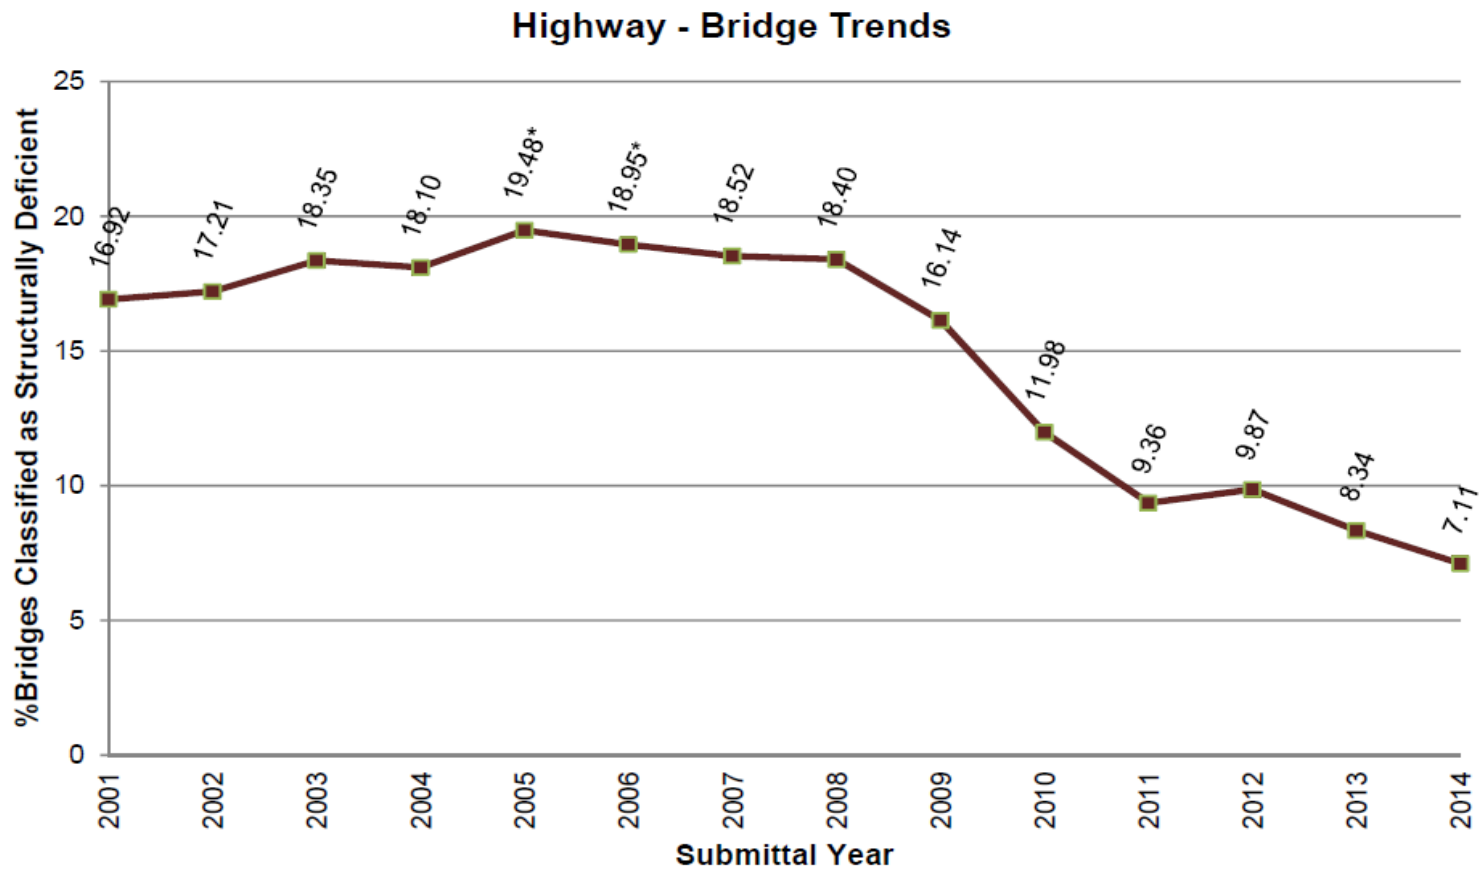

- 38% reduction in fatalities from 2013
- Lowest since WWII
 - 50% unbelted, 25% drug/alcohol, 25% speed
- Vermont Highway Safety Alliance (established 2012)
 - Law enforcement, Emergency Responders
 - Educators: health, youth safety
 - Car dealers
 - Insurance companies (AAA)
 - Nonprofits (AARP, MPO)
 - State & Federal Partners (NHTSA, FHWA, AOE, AOT, DPS, DPH)

Asset Performance Update

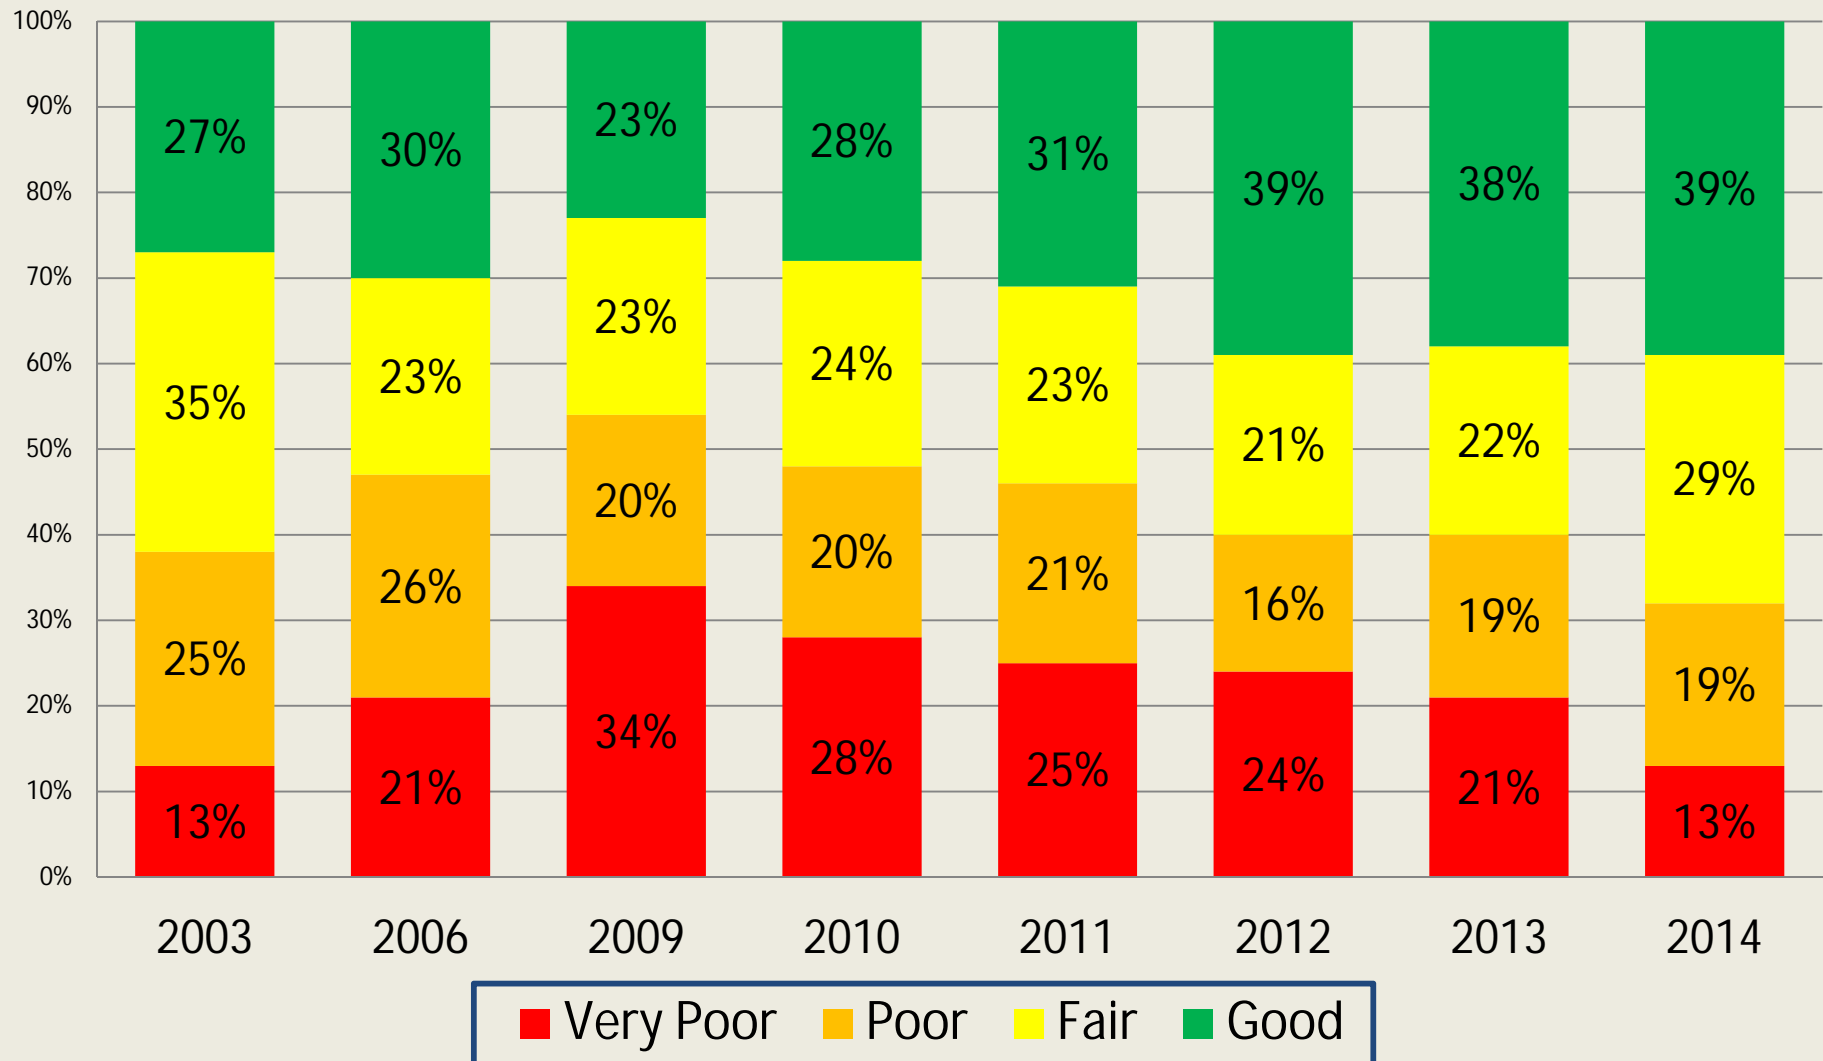

- Bridge Structural Deficiency:
 - In 2008 VT was 45th nationally for structurally deficient bridges
 - In 2013 VT improved to 28th
 - Percentage of structurally deficient highway bridges has declined from 16.1% in December 2008 to 7.1% in December 2014
- Pavement conditions:
 - 36 percent rated very poor in 2008
 - 13 percent rated very poor in 2014

Bridge Structural Deficiency

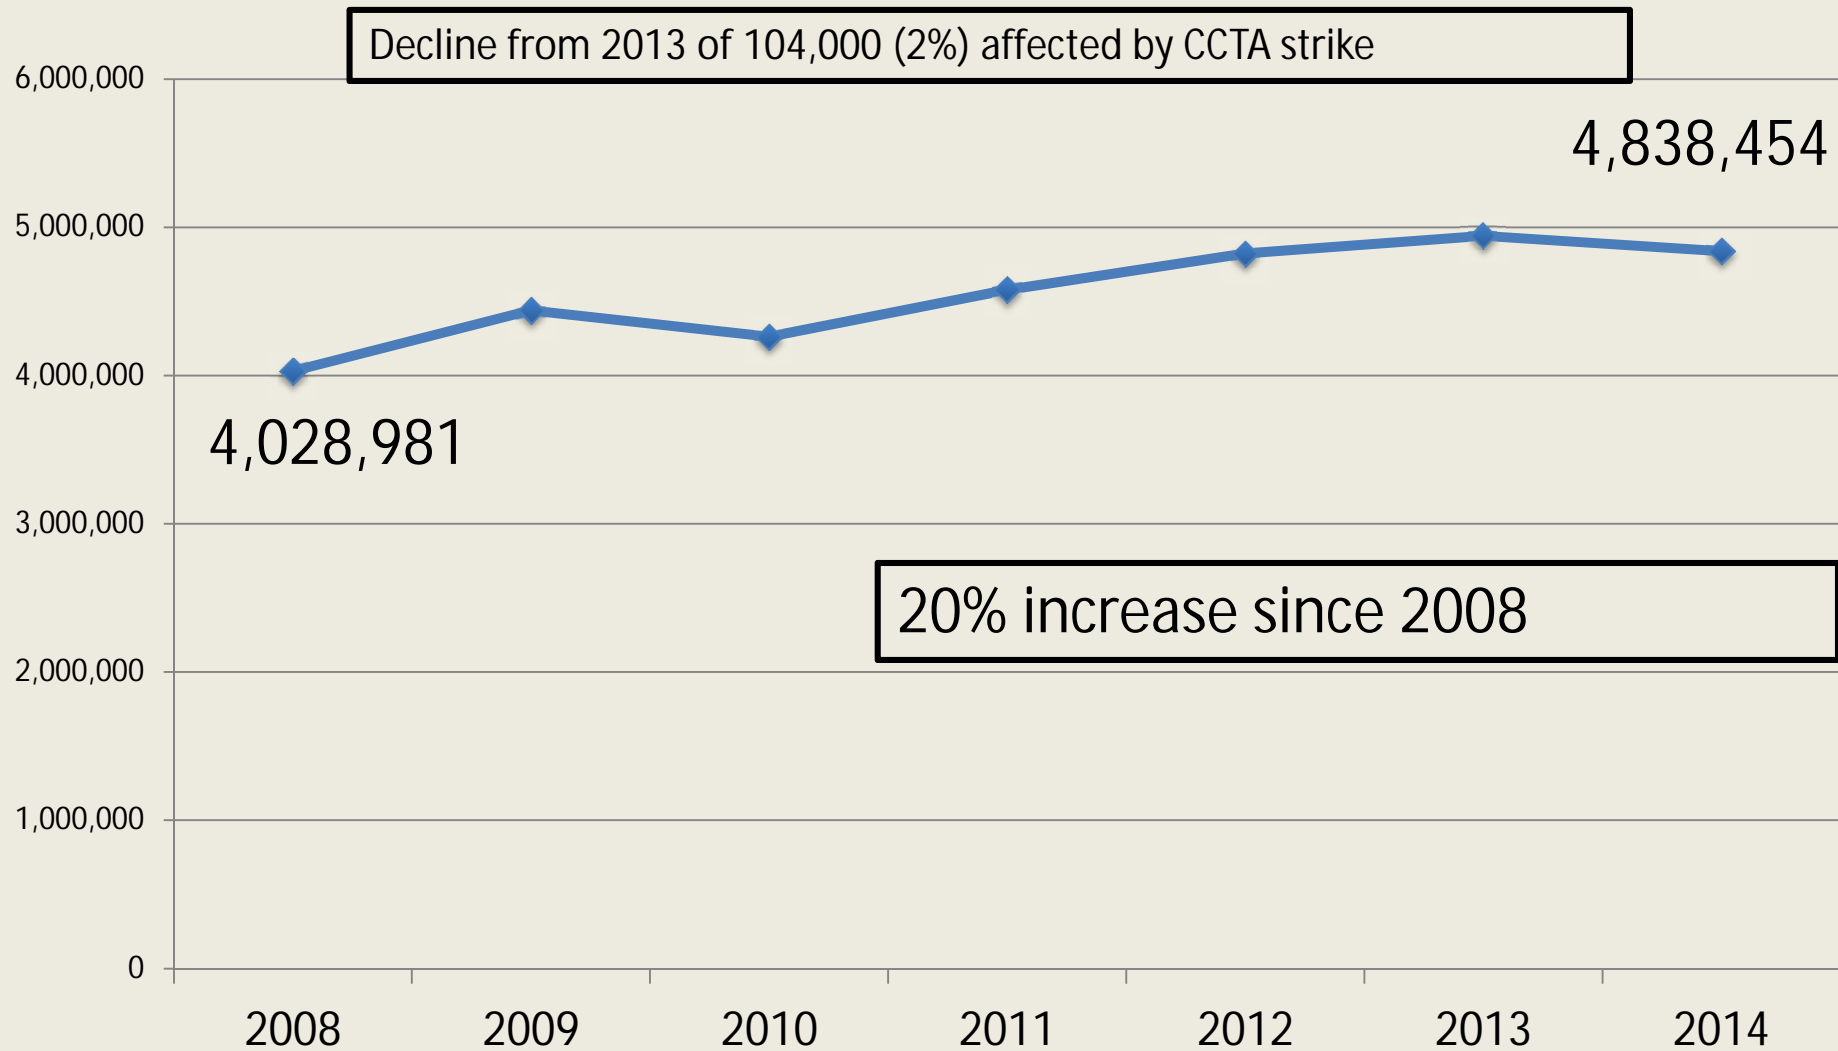

*data corrected to reflect oversight in NBI inventory rating reporting format

Pavement Conditions

Public Transit Ridership 2008-2014

Rail Ridership 2005-2014

Up nearly 7,000 (6.8%) from 2013 to 2014

