

Vermont Humanities
Because Ideas Matter

Vermont Humanities Council Program Participants 2014

Humanities-Based Literacy Programs		Audience
Adult literacy programs with teens, offenders, adult literacy participants	903	Teachers and service providers (including 178 offenders, also teen parents, English language learners, high school completion students, people being served by social services nonprofits, and others)
Humanities Camps (week-long)	216	At-risk middle school students
Early literacy training (childcare providers)	353	Childcare, home care providers
Early literacy training (parents)	460	Parents
Total literacy program participants	1,932
Public Humanities Programs
Vermont Reads (statewide, one-book community reading program)	12,400	in 119 towns
Literature and Medicine (work-based reading and discussion program)	97	in 4 hospitals, including VA
Reading and Discussion	2,281	in 159 discussions in 33 towns
Fall Conference	315	Attendees
First Wednesdays (lecture series in nine communities)	6,243	Attendees
Speakers Bureau	3,789	Attendees at 111 programs in 68 towns
Total public program participants	25,125
Total all live VHC programs	27,057
Radio and Civil War E-mail
	135,000	2,600+ recipients of the weekly Civil War Book of Days emails (countless others read online, Facebook, Twitter, etc.)
	400,000	(20,000 VPR listeners for each of 20 commentaries Peter Gilbert did in 2014)