10            Sixth: In Sec. G.2, in 32 V.S.A. § 5930b(c)(6)(B), by striking out 11            subdivision (iii) in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof a new subdivision 12            (iii) to read:

13                    (iii) If the Council grants an extension pursuant to this subdivision 14                    (B), the Council shall recalculate the value of the incentive using the 15                    cost-benefit model and the wage threshold applicable at the time the extension 16                    is granted and shall adjust the amount of the award as is necessary to account 17                    for the extension of the award period and the updated wage threshold.

18            * * * Vermont Employment Growth Incentive; Value-Added VEGI * * *

19            Seventh: In Sec. G.2, in 32 V.S.A. § 5930b, by striking out subsection (i) in 20            its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof a new subsection (i) to read:

21                    (i) Employment growth incentive for value-added business.

1           (1) In this subsection:

2                   (A) “Advanced manufacturing” means:

3                           (i) an activity that depends on the use and coordination of 4                   information, automation, computation, software, sensing, and networking, or

5                           (ii) an activity that uses cutting edge materials and emerging 6                   capabilities enabled by the physical and biological sciences, including 7                   nanotechnology, chemistry, and biology, that includes both new ways to 8                   manufacture existing products and the manufacture of new products emerging 9                   from new advanced technologies.

10                   (B) “Value-added business” means a person that is subject to income 11                   taxation in Vermont and whose current or prospective economic activity in 12                   Vermont for which incentives are sought under this section is certified by the 13                   Secretary of Commerce and Community Development to be primarily in one 14                   or more of the following sectors:

15                           (i) advanced manufacturing; or

16                           (ii) information processing or information management services, 17                   including:

18                                   (I) computer hardware or software, and information and 19                   communication technologies, such as high-level software languages, graphics 20                   hardware and software, speech and optical character recognition, high-volume 21                   information storage and retrieval, and data compression;

1                   (II) technological applications that use biological systems, 2 living organisms or derivatives thereof, to make or modify products or 3 processes for specific use;

4                   (III) custom computer programming services, such as writing, 5 modifying, testing, and supporting software to meet the needs of a particular 6 customer;

7                   (IV) computer systems design services such as planning and 8 designing computer systems that integrate computer hardware, software, and 9 communication technologies; and

10                  (V) computer facilities management services, such as providing 11 on-site management and operation of clients' computer systems or data 12 processing facilities, or both.

13                  (2) A value-added business located in a labor market area in which the 14 unemployment rate is at least 0.5 percent higher than the average
15 unemployment rate for the State may submit an application for an enhanced 16 incentive pursuant to this subsection.

17                  (3) The Council shall consider and administer an application and award 18 for an enhanced incentive under this subsection pursuant to the provisions of 19 this section, except that:

20                  (A) the “incentive ratio” pursuant to subdivision (a)(11) of this 21 section shall be set at 90 percent; and

1           (B) the “payroll threshold” pursuant to subdivision (a)(17) of this 2           section shall be deemed to be 20 percent of the expected average industry 3           payroll growth as determined by the cost-benefit model.

19           Sec. G.11. TAX AMNESTY

20           (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the Commissioner of Taxes 21           shall establish a tax amnesty program during which all penalties that could be

1 assessed by the Commissioner shall be waived without the need for any 2 showing by the taxpayer of reasonable cause or the absence of willful neglect 3 if the taxpayer, prior to the expiration of the amnesty period, files proper 4 returns for any tax types and any period for which the taxpayer has or had a 5 filing obligation and pays the full amount of tax shown on such return together
6 with all interest due thereon. The amnesty program shall be established for a 7 period of six consecutive weeks to be determined by the Commissioner, to 8 expire not later than October 2, 2015.

9 (b) The amnesty program shall apply to a tax liability of any tax type for 10 any periods for which the due date of the return was before January 26, 2015, 11 but shall not apply to those penalties which the Commissioner would not have 12 the sole authority to waive, including fuel taxes administered under the 13 International Fuel Tax Agreement or under the local option portions of taxes.

14 (c)(1) The Commissioner shall maintain records of the amnesty provided 15 under this section, including:

16 (A) the number of taxpayers provided with amnesty;

17 (B) the types of tax liability for which amnesty was provided and, for 18 each type of liability:

19 (i) the amount of tax liability collected by the Commissioner;

20 (ii) the amount of penalties forgone by virtue of the amnesty; and

1                   (iii) the total outstanding tax liability due to the State, for the 2 period through June 30, 2015, after the collection of all funds under this 3 section.

4                   (2) The Commissioner shall file a report detailing the information 5 required by subdivision (1) of this subsection with the Clerk of the House of 6 Representatives and the Secretary of the Senate, the Joint Fiscal Committee, 7 the House Committee on Ways and Means, and the Senate Committee on 8 Finance not later than December 15, 2015; provided, however, that the report 9 shall not contain information sufficient to identify an individual taxpayer or the 10 amnesty an individual taxpayer was provided under this section.

11 Sec. G.12. TAX AMNESTY PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION FUNDING

12                   (a) The Commissioner of Taxes shall supervise and direct the execution of 13 all laws vested in the Department of Taxes by, and shall formulate and carry 14 out all policies relating to, section G.11 of this act.

15                   (b) The Commissioner may:

16                   (1) adopt rules necessary to implement the provisions of this 17 chapter; and

18                   (3) enter into contracts and perform such acts as are necessary to 19 accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

20                   (c) There is hereby created a fund to be known as the Tax Amnesty 21 Administration Fund for the purpose of providing the financial means for the

1 Commissioner to administer under section G.11 of this act. All fees and 2 assessments received by the Department pursuant to such administration shall 3 be credited to this Fund.

4 (1) All payments from the Tax Amnesty Administration Fund for the 5 advertising of the Tax Amnesty Program and associated expenses, including 6 contractual services as necessary, shall be disbursed from the State Treasury
7 only upon warrants issued by the Commissioner, after receipt of proper 8 documentation regarding services rendered and expenses incurred.

9 (2) The Commissioner may anticipate receipts to the Tax Amnesty
10 Administration Fund and issue warrants based thereon.

11 * * * Effective Dates * * *

12 Twelfth: By striking out Sec. H.1 in its entirety (effective dates) and 13 inserting in lieu thereof a new Sec. H.1 to read:
