Definition of Rinse Off	No definition of "rinse off cosmetic" or "rinse off" except that "rinse-off cosmetic includes toothpaste."	Does not apply only to rinse-off products.	No definition of "rinse off" provided.
Definitions of Nonpresciption Drug and Over the Counter Drug	"Nonprescription drug" means a drug not subject to section 503(b)(1) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. § 353(b)(1)).  21 U.S.C. § 353(b)(1) is the FDA requirement that a drug be prescribed by a qualifying health care professional.	"Over the counter drug" means a compound, substance, or preparation that contains a label that identifies the product as a drug, as required by 21 C.F.R. § 201.66, and that includes a drug facts panel or a statement of the active ingredient or ingredients contained in the compound, substance, or preparation.	None provided.
Express Preemption	No State or political subdivision of a State may directly or indirectly establish under any authority or continue in effect restrictions with respect to the manufacture or introduction or delivery for introduction into interstate commerce of rinse-off cosmetics containing plastic microbeads that are not identical to the [federal] restrictions under 21 U.S.C. § 331(ddd).
Construction	Nothing in this Act (or the amendments made by this Act) shall be construed to apply with respect to drugs that are not also cosmetics (as such terms are defined in section 201 of the FFDCA (21 U.S.C. 321)).
Possible Remaining State Jurisdiction		Personal care products that that are not rinse off cosmetics, including soap.  Over the counter drugs that contain microbeads that are not also cosmetics.	:
FDA Regulatory Authority	Because rinse-off is not defined and is potentially ambiguous, the federal Food and Drug Administration has authority to define the term by rule. In so doing, the FDA rule could further limit the class of cosmetics that are subject only to federal regulation.
