11 § 4010. RESIDENTIAL HOME IMPROVEMENT CONTRACTS

12 (a) Writing required. A residential home improvement contract, and any 13 amendment to the contract, shall be in writing.

14 (b) Required provisions. A residential home improvement contract shall 15 include the following:

16 (1) Contract price. One of the following provisions for the price of 17 the contract:

18 (A) a maximum price for all work and materials;

19 (B) a statement that billing and payment will be made on a time and 20 materials basis, not to exceed a maximum price; or

1 (C) a statement that billing and payment will be made on a time and
2 materials basis and that there is no maximum price.

3 (2) Work dates. A start date and a completion date for work.

4 (3) Scope of work. A description of the work to be performed and a
5 description of the materials to be used.

6 (4) Warranty. A provision that reads: “In addition to any additional 7 warranties agreed to by the parties, the contractor warrants that his or her work
8 is free from faulty materials and is performed in a skillful manner according to 9 the standards of the building code applicable for this location.”

10 (5) Change order.

11 (A) Unless a residential home improvement contract specifies that 12 billing and payment will be made on a time and materials basis and that there
13 is no maximum price, subject to subdivision (5)(B) of this subsection, a 14 provision that the contractor shall not perform any work or procure materials in 15 excess of the maximum price of the contract without prior written approval of 16 the owner.

17 (B) The contract may provide that an owner can approve a change
18 order verbally or by electronic communication, provided that the owner and 19 contractor shall memorialize the approval in a signed writing within three days
20 of the approval.

1 (c) Down payment. Unless a residential home improvement contract
2 specifies that billing and payment will be made on a time and materials basis
3 and that there is no maximum price, the contract may require a down payment
4 of up to one-third of the maximum price of the contract, or the price of 5 materials, whichever is greater.

6 (d) Enforcement and remedies.

7 (1) A residential home improvement contract shall not include a binding
8 arbitration requirement or any other provision under which an owner waives
9 his or her right to pursue civil remedies to enforce the contract or resolve a 10 dispute with the contractor.

11 (2) A person who violates or fails to comply with a provision of this 12 chapter commits an unfair and deceptive act in commerce in violation of 13 section 2453 of this title.

14 Sec. 2. EFFECTIVE DATE

15 This act shall take effect on January 1, 2016.
