

2014 Annual Report

vhfa
Vermont Housing Finance Agency

Affordable Homes for a Sustainable Vermont.

FROM THE DESK OF GOVERNOR PETER SHUMLIN

With 2014 marking Vermont Housing Finance Agency's 40th anniversary, this is the perfect opportunity to reflect on the ways it has helped 125,000 low - and moderate-income Vermonters find housing they can afford. The economic fluctuations of the past 40 years remind us of the importance of VHFA's stabilizing presence. It has consistently been the lender that qualified low - and moderate - income homebuyers and developers of affordable rental housing can rely on.

With 40 years' experience, VHFA has developed an unparalleled knowledge base about the underlying, sometimes complex, issues affecting the affordability of housing across the Green Mountain State. Through the Vermont Housing Data website, housing research, collaborative partnerships and policy analysis, VHFA's impact extends far beyond its mortgage programs. I sincerely appreciate the breadth of VHFA's role in helping to house more Vermonters safely and affordably.

By tirelessly searching for new ways to make housing affordable for more Vermonters, VHFA maximizes the positive impact of its own programs as well as those of its partners.

This report clearly shows the great strides VHFA has made toward making housing affordable for more Vermonters. Unfortunately, the ever-present mismatch between the costs of buying and renting homes and the incomes of low - and moderate-income households means there is far more work to do.

I sincerely appreciate VHFA's long-standing commitment to turning knowledge into results through leadership and the unique financial tools at its disposal. I look forward to working with the Agency in the years to come to develop new solutions for housing affordability problems.

Peter Shumlin

81ST GOVERNOR OF VERMONT

OUR MISSION

TO FINANCE AND PROMOTE AFFORDABLE, SAFE AND DECENT HOUSING OPPORTUNITIES FOR LOW- AND MODERATE-INCOME VERMONTERS.

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIRPERSON AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

TOM PELLETIER
VHFA Board of Commissioners

SARAH CARPENTER
VHFA Executive Director

While continuing to serve low- and moderate-income Vermonters through a growing array of lending programs, 2014 was a year of taking stock of VHFA's impact in its 40-year history and for planning next steps. With the pride of having assisted 125,000 Vermonters move into homes they can afford comes the responsibility of working to help even more of the growing number of residents in need.

Over the past 40 years, nearly 1 in 8 of Vermont's owned homes was financed using one of VHFA's mortgage programs. There is no doubt that the current housing market is daunting for many homebuyers, especially those with lower incomes trying to buy their first home. Yet in 2014 VHFA continued to offer new lending tools, providing hundreds of first-time buyers with the financing they needed to make the dream of homeownership a reality.

Since the 1970s, VHFA has helped finance the development of 1 in 9 Vermont apartments. In 2014 alone, 610 affordable apartments were renovated or constructed through loans and housing credit allocations provided by VHFA. Yet tight rental markets and a startlingly high number of Vermonters paying more than half of their income for rent persist in many parts of the state.

There is far more work to be done. For this reason, we know we must continue to look for new partners and strategies like the Housing Acquisition and Rehabilitation Program (HARP) and Vermont mobile home replacement program. These recently-initiated programs continued to expand last year, strengthening communities and providing homeowners with the long term stability that comes from highly energy-efficient, affordable homes.

With unwavering commitment to the benefits that our long-standing financing programs provide to homebuyers and renters, we also look forward to finding ways to extend housing affordability to even more Vermonters who need it.

JULY 2013: Jeanne Morrissey of J.A. Morrissey, Inc., a general contractor and construction management company, appointed to VHFA Board of Commissioners.
