Act No. 11 (H.4). Judiciary; Court procedure; calculation of time periods

An act relating to calculating time periods in court proceedings

This act make clear that when the Vermont statutes establish periods of time of fewer than 11 days in court proceedings, the period of time means fewer than 11 business days. A “business day” means every official working day of the week, which generally does not include weekends or holidays. A “calendar day,” on the other hand, means any day of the week, including weekends and holidays.
