Act No. 59 (S.4). Health; accountable care organizations; transparency

An act relating to publicly accessible meetings of an accountable care organization's governing body

This act requires all meetings of an accountable care organization's (ACO) governing body to be open to the public and to provide an opportunity for public comment. It allows an ACO's governing body to go into executive session under specific circumstances. It requires an ACO to make its governing body's meeting schedule available to the public, to either record or take minutes of the meetings, and to post the recordings or minutes to the ACO's website within five business days.
