Act No. 100 (H.585). Public records; Executive Branch; municipal government

An act relating to management of records

This act:

- rearranges and updates the law governing the services of the Statewide Records and Information Management (RIM) Program of the Vermont State Archives and Records Administration and the duties and authority of the State Archivist;
- amends the Public Records Act to address the importance of records management and the availability of the services of the RIM Program to all public agencies and to update a cross-reference; and
- repeals a law that requires 10 copies of Executive Branch reports to be submitted to the State Librarian and makes technical changes to a law regarding certain official volumes and documents that the State Librarian has a duty to distribute.

Effective Date: July 1, 2018
