“Madam Speaker:

Thank you. Today we are recognizing the University of Vermont’s men’s basketball team for their outstanding accomplishments on the court.

I also want the body to know that the team’s season may have ended on the court, but its perfect graduation rate helped take them all the way to the National Championship in the classroom, according to an academic-based bracket by Time magazine.

The tournament, based on an academic formula that was applied to all of the 68 teams in this year’s NCAA tournament, had the University of Vermont winning in the semi-finals before falling in the finals. The Catamounts were one of 12 teams with a 100 percent player graduation rate.

This team’s successes on the court and in the classroom have made Vermont proud.

Please join me in welcoming the University of Vermont men’s basketball team, who are seated in the Senate seats.”

Rep. Scheuermann of Stowe explained her vote as follows:

“Madam Speaker:

This body just had the opportunity to show Vermonters that we do want to restructure our state government to bring it into the 21st century so that it works for Vermonters again. It only makes sense that liquor and lottery will serve the same clients; be housed (not necessarily physically) under one roof; be led by one commissioner directly accountable to the Governor; and be governed by one board. We just voted for the status quo to be maintained. Madam Speaker, what a missed opportunity to be an agent for common sense change.”
