

“How can we have economic growth and help our people improve their economic situation without destroying the secret of our success, our environment?”

-- Governor Deanne Davis, 1969

