

THE TIME HAS COME

to transition Vermont's agricultural economy to one in which success is not measured solely in gallons, pounds, or dollars extracted from the land, but also by the health and vitality of all its stakeholders: Farmers, consumers, businesses, crops, animals, and soils.

We cannot wait for Washington or Montpelier to begin this transition; we must act now to create a vibrant future for all.

- Farmer & childcare stipends available
- Light dinner provided
- Live music & cash bar or BYOB at select locations
