

1 TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

2 The Committee on Commerce and Economic Development to which was
3 referred Senate Bill No. 180 entitled “An act relating to the Vermont Fair
4 Repair Act” respectfully reports that it has considered the same and 5 recommends that the House propose to the Senate that the bill be amended by 6 striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the 7 following:

8 Sec. 1. FINDINGS

9 The General Assembly finds:

10 ~~(1) Manufacturers can make it difficult or impossible—whether~~
11 ~~inadvertently or intentionally—for consumers or independent repair~~
12 ~~technicians to fix their consumer electronic products, even for such minor~~
13 ~~repairs as replacing a battery or screen.~~

14 (1) The repair of modern electronic products, even for such minor
15 repairs as replacing a battery or screen, often becomes difficult or impossible
16 due to manufacturers’ limitation of access to information or parts to effect
17 those repairs.

18 (2) Manufacturers may limit access to information or parts to correct
19 defects to only those customers who are under warranty; may refuse access to 20 information or parts for owners of older models; and may refuse to stock or

1 sell parts at fair and reasonable prices. Consequently, consumers are often left
2 with few options other than to buy new.

3 (3) Modern repairs involve electronics. ~~any product that can have~~
4 ~~embedded electronics will eventually have embedded electronics.~~ Repairing
5 those electronics requires information, parts, firmware access, and tooling
6 specifications from the product designers.

7 (4) The knowledge and tools to repair and refurbish consumer electronic 8 products should be distributed as widely and freely as the products themselves.
9 In contrast to centralized manufacturing, reuse must be broadly distributed to 10 achieve economies of scale.

11 (5) Many manufacturers have made commitments to sustainability,
12 repair, and reuse, and the innovation economy of Vermont and the United 13 States has had many positive economic and environmental impacts.
14 Legislation that further promotes extending the lifespan of consumer electronic 15 products can create jobs and benefit the environment.

16 (6) As demonstrated by Massachusetts's experience with a right to 17 repair initiative concerning automobiles in 2014, which resulted in a
18 compromise between manufacturers and independent repair providers to adopt
19 a voluntary nationwide approach for providing diagnostic codes and repair data 20 available in a common format by the 2018 model year, legislative action to

1 secure a right to repair can achieve positive benefits for manufacturers,
2 independent businesses, and consumers.
