

Recommended substitute language for S. 34 Section 4 “Development Cabinet amendments”

“It is within the authority of the Executive Branch to manage a process of continuous improvement for agency and statewide programs and operations. While undertaking these efforts, the Executive Branch shall ensure state loan, grant, and other incentive programs cross-promote relevant State policies, including the adoption of renewable energy, rural economic development, public access to conserved lands, and water quality improvements.”