

120 State Street Life Safety & Infrastructure Improvements

The project involves waterproofing the entire foundation to alleviate the ground water infiltration issues. Water infiltration causes indoor air quality issues, property damage, and deterioration of the foundation. About half of the foundation will be excavated as part of the life safety project. From a financial, as well as a project coordination and execution standpoint, it makes sense to complete the waterproofing of the entire foundation as part of the life safety project.

120 State Street Life Safety & Infrastructure Improvements

