

Hello,

I am a nurse practitioner and I work in a very busy rural clinic in Castleton. .Please consider stopping the transition to practice agreements and the requirement of filed practice guidelines. My personal experience is that practices are not sincere in making accurate practice guidelines and that the state is not able to adequately follow up on their compliance. These are are an affront to our ethics and professionalism and are not supported by our evidence of excellence.

Sincerely,

Theresa Haywood FNP