

Proposed Amendments to H.819

Offered by Vermont Apartment Owners Association

(D) prohibit a municipality from adopting a civil ordinance to provide additional penalties for consumption of marijuana in a public place or to define as a public nuisance any significant odor that emanates from a person's property due to marijuana consumption on the property, however, for any rented dwelling unit or place of public accommodation, municipal enforcement shall be only against the person consuming marijuana and not the property owner;