

Ann Guion, the Director of the Windham County Humane Society called in to strongly urge the House Judiciary Committee to support H.325 (prohibiting bestiality) as Vermont is one of only eight states that does not have a law like this on the books.