

"Racial justice means working hard, every day to address entrenched systemic oppression in the criminal justice system, the educational system, the health care system, etc. As a new resident of Vermont I'm looking critically at how these systems work to examine and correct implicit biases as racial justice is a top priority to me."

Andrea Jackson, Hartford