

I've never had an experience with gun violence. But I've heard, so many times now, about people who have. It's scary. And I don't want to be scared anymore.

I think that any bill that would allow students to feel safe in their schools again is worth passing, whether it's background checks or age limits. It's my right to feel safe.

in my community. And while I can't do much to change laws, you can. So do your job and protect the children of Vermont.
