§ 6607a. Waste transportation

(g)(1) Except as set forth in subdivisions (2), (3), and (4) of this subsection, a commercial hauler that offers the collection of municipal solid waste shall:

(C) Beginning on July 1, ~~2018~~2019, offer collection of food residuals separate from other solid waste from areas of high housing density, and deliver to a location that manages food residuals in a manner consistent with the priority uses established under subdivisions 6605k(a)(2)-(5) of this title. For purposes of this section areas of “high housing density” shall be defined as areas in which the density of residential units exceeds 250 per square mile. The Secretary shall publish annually a listing of the municipalities, the street names and address ranges, which fall within these areas.
