TESTIMONY PROVIDED TO: Senate Education Committee
FROM: Dr. Amy Fowler, Deputy Agency of Education
TOPIC: H27- Employment Agreements
DATE: April 10, 2018

The AOE requests a modification to the proposed language for § 1386. Employment Agreements. The current language focuses on employment aspects of sexual misconduct and we would ask for a reminder that employers should notify the appropriate licensing entities (OPR and AOE for example) of such misconduct.

In accordance with 21 V.S.A. § 306, it is the policy of the State of Vermont that no confidential employment separation agreement shall inhibit the disclosure to prospective employers and responsible licensing entities of factual information about a prospective employee's background that would lead a reasonable person to conclude that the prospective employee has engaged in conduct jeopardizing the safety of a vulnerable adult or minor.

§1699 requires that Superintendents must report to the Secretary of Education any suspected unprofessional conduct. Certainly sexual misconduct would fall under this requirement. Clearly articulating the expectation in this statute would be reinforcing of that obligation. The Agency of Education, upon receiving such information, conducts investigations and hearings that could result in the individual losing or having their license suspended.

The AOE, as a member of the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement, reports all denials, suspensions, revocations and surrenders of licenses for reasons other than failing to meet academic requirements. When prospective applicants apply for licenses in other states, the licensing body in that state reviews the applicant's history and would see that they had faced licensing action in Vermont. Emphasizing that misconduct reports to licensing entities may not be inhibited by confidential employment separation agreements increases the protective nature of this statute beyond our state borders.

Additionally, on the next page is a screen shot of the disclosure form applicants must complete in Vermont to have an educator's license. Please note that it includes both adjudicated and non-adjudicated issues pertaining to misconduct.

Disclosure Questions

If the answer to any of the questions "A" through "I" is "yes", you must provide a complete explanation. A "yes" answer to any of those questions is not an automatic denial of licensure. The circumstances will be investigated and reviewed. If you have previously reported the same incident to the Agency of Education, please indicate so.
