Sec. X. JOINT LEGISLATIVE JUSTICE OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE; 2017

LEGISLATIVE INTERIM; FURLOUGH

During the 2017 legislative interim, the Joint Legislative Justice Oversight Committee shall review furlough as a legal status for offenders under the custody of the Commissioner of Corrections who are serving all or part of an incarcerative sentence in the community outside a correctional facility. The Committee shall evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of furlough status in reintegrating offenders into the community, or providing offenders with medical care or treatment while managing safety requirements and complying with local or state zoning regulations.
