Mission

HinesburgHUB's founders believe that rural work-at-home professionals, cultural creatives, solopreneurs, and traditional employees value social connections, and need personal and professional support to achieve their visions.

Our mission:

connect entrepreneurs and remote workers in a collaborative, and accessible fusion of coworking space, office-place, and community third space, fostering Vermont innovation.

The HUB will pursue Certified BCorp status, doing business intentionally to make an impact on the triple bottom line of of people, planet, and profit.

VT Rural Tech HUB

Our mission is to bring Tech's economic opportunity to the neighborhoods and communities that need it most. We're building a rural tech workforce and connection platform to serve local, regional, national, and international clients.

Our platform has the potential to seed the transformation of our small communities, bringing new career opportunities and economic revitalization. We're working to build a network of these "HUBs" throughout VT and New England.

Remote Work & Coworking

A style of work that involves a shared working environment accessed with a monthly or annual membership.

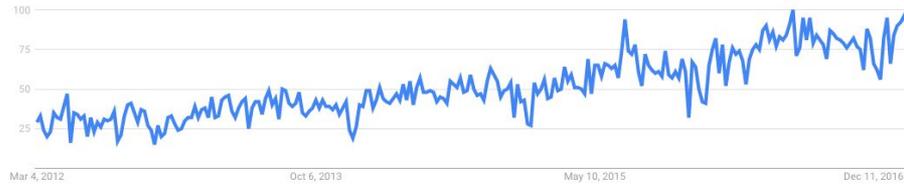

Members are work-at-home professionals, independent contractors, frequent travelers and knowledge workers with flexible schedules.

Coworking includes social and professional gathering of the group to share ideas and help each other achieve their business and personal goals.

Vermont's Need

Coworking, maker, and innovation spaces are a key piece of attracting and retaining the workforce of the present and future.

Table Stakes

- Accessible & affordable childcare
- High speed data infrastructure

Other States: Maine

In 2015, the Maine Coworking Development Fund, administered by the Maine Economic & Community Development Department, issued grants to Fork Food Lab in Portland, Our Katahdin Properties in Millinocket and Think Tank, each of which received $25,000. Open Bench Project in Portland and The Gem in Bethel each received $12,500.

Roche has supported other such efforts by the state.

"Smart cities and states are figuring out how to fund this," Roche says.

"[We should be saying] 'Here's legit startup capital. Go open a coworking space in Waterville, in Augusta, in Sanford.' That's what we should be doing."

"It's a real opportunity, make Maine a place to remote work," he adds.

"We can tell people, 'Why not take that six-figure corporate job in Boston or Washington, D.C., and come to Portland, Maine, where we have the coworking space to support you?'"

TELEWORKSUSA

-FIND A HUB NEAR YOU-

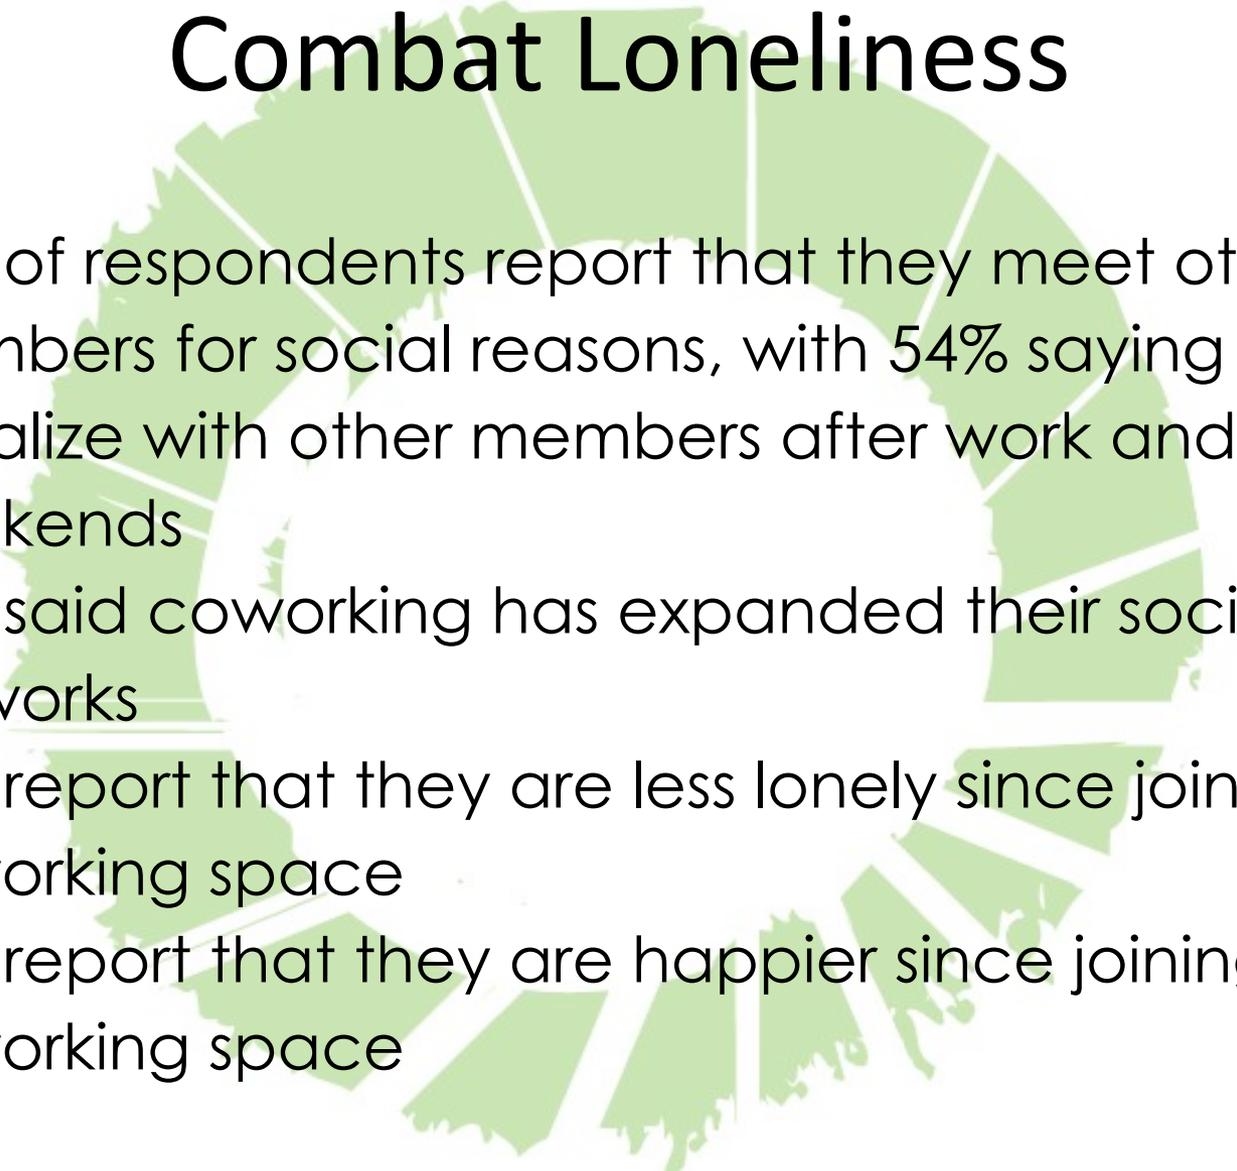

Teleworks USA is an innovative program that is bringing cutting-edge telework (work-from-home) employment opportunities to jobseekers, especially those in rural areas and small towns, allowing them to participate in the global economy without relocating.

Consequence: Loneliness

But as any remote worker will tell you, there are also considerable challenges...isolation and loneliness are among the biggest complaints. Working remotely means missing out on the human interaction and social aspects that being in an office provides

Combat Loneliness

- 87% of respondents report that they meet other members for social reasons, with 54% saying they socialize with other members after work and/or on weekends
- 79% said coworking has expanded their social networks
- 83% report that they are less lonely since joining a coworking space
- 89% report that they are happier since joining a coworking space

Consequence: Health Care

Freelance Work in the United States

Many people are choosing to work independently, in fact, in 2015, 1 in 3 workers were choosing to earn income from non-traditional work, that works out to 53 million Americans. The estimates are that by 2020, that's just 3 years away, 50 percent of the workforce in the United States will have some form of freelance work. A major challenge facing independent, self-employed or freelance workers is in finding affordable and reliable health insurance coverage.

VT's moving...remote work

- New efforts for Bradford, Lyndonville, Randolph, Bristol Colchester with GMP - building VT's Innovation ecosystem
- New spaces in WRJ & Brattleboro launched and folded w/in a year - need support
