

S.72 Proposal of Clarifying Amendment
Christopher J. Curtis
Chief, Public Protection Division
Office of the Attorney General

(b)(3) No person, telephone solicitor, or telemarketer engaged in telephone solicitation shall cause a caller identification service to transmit misleading, inaccurate, or false caller identification, provided that a person, telephone solicitor, or telemarketer may substitute the name and telephone number of the person on whose behalf he or she places the call.

