

Cheryl,

The VLS internet system has been down all week with the consequence that I just received this invitation now. I appreciate the invitation but I already have other commitments for tomorrow afternoon so will be unable to attend. I have reviewed the resolution. I think it is pretty straightforward and its purpose is clear. It does the work that needs to be done. I do not have any particular suggestions for changes.

With warm good wishes,

Peter Teachout