

Proposals for Sec 8 S.203

The community-based services provided by designated and specialized services agencies are a critical component of Vermont's health care system. These services are essential for the prevention of unnecessary hospitalization and emergency department use. The ability to recruit and retain qualified employees is necessary for delivery of quality community-based mental health services. The Agency of Human Services shall implement a process for annual budget approval and rate setting for designated agencies.